

Run for Fun

This Sunday is the Annual Run for Fun sponsored by the Midland YMCA and CK-MP radio.

There is a choice of three courses to run; a two, four, and six mile circuit. Each course begins and ends at the Y and the starting time for all of this is 12:30 p.m.

Today is the last day to register, so get down to the Y or to CKMP and get signed up.

Cost to enter the run is $1 for children 16 and under, $2 for those 17 and over, $3 for couples, and $4 for families.

So get out, enjoy the good spring weather, and do something healthy for your body.

MGCC ladies

May 9 was the opening meeting and luncheon of the ladies' section of the Midland Golf and Country Club.

The ladies welcomed about 10 new members to the club.

Lunch was served to about 48 ladies, and they saluted Bill Howard and his staff for the excellent job.

A round of golf, nine holes anyway, was enjoyed by 24 ladies, and three tables enjoyed a few hands of bridge.

Plants donated by President Madaline English were won by Alma Marsell, golf section, and Bert Nicholls, bridge section.

Next Tuesday is Membership Day, where we welcome our new members.

MGCC is hosting the first round of play in the Finlayson Cup on June 1.

Hunter Safety Training

The Hunter Safety Program, recently completed in Midland a couple of weeks ago is designed to prepare first time hunters, as well as incompetent hunters, for the Ministry of Natural Resources' hunters examination to qualify for a hunter's licence.

Officially, those people who must take the course, are defined as the people who do not meet the required qualifications to purchase an Ontario licence to hunt, or to take an Ontario Hunting Licence Examination, and were born after the 31st day of December of 1954.

Completion of the course qualifies the person to write the exam for an Ontario Hunting Licence.

Three specific categories of people are required to write the exam.

First of all, if you were born before Dec. 31 1954, and are a first-time hunter, or are unable to qualify for the purchase of an Ontario licence to hunt, then you must write the examination.

Next, if you can prove you have taken and completed the Hunter Safety Training program after Jan. 1, 1968, then you are eligible to write the exam.

Lastly, if you were born after Dec. 31, 1954, then you must complete the Hunter Training Program, and take the exam.

Also, if you are any age, and fail the examination for an Ontario hunting licence, you are required to take the Hunter Training Course.

Cost of the Training Program varies from one municipality to another, but here it costs $23, which includes the $3 fee for the Ontario Hunters' Licence Examination.

Although the successful completion of the training program and the examination qualifies a person for any hunting licence, some educators advocate the Ontario Small Game hunting licence. It is valid for a year, and allows the holder to hunt small game like groundhogs and some birds (named on the licence). By purchasing this licence, the neophyte hunter can get used to hunter regulations and practices, as well as practice his shooting techniques and marksmanship.

It is important to know what each specific hunting licence allows you to hunt, and to know what restrictions are set as to the dates for each licence.

To be sure of what your licence allows you to do, check with the Ministry of Natural Resources. They produce a fine pamphlet entitled, "Summary of the Hunting Regulations", and it illustrates exactly what, where, when, and how one can go about hunting in Ontario.

By following regulations, and hunter etiquette, as well as safe firearm handling techniques, hunting can be a rewarding outdoors experience, along with a thrilling pursuit of game animals.
