

Jeffery hopes deputy can be hired from ranks

Bob Jeffery

Midland Fire Department is in the market for a new deputy fire chief.

With this in mind, the town's public safety committee (under the chairmanship of Alderman Bob Jeffery) gave Fire Chief Hal Belfry the green light to advertise the position "in-house."

Alderman Jeffery hopes a new deputy fire chief can be hired within the ranks of the present full-time firefighters.

If this is accomplished, it will leave a vacancy on the floor which Jeffery hopes then can be filled by former Midland firefighter Tom Toole who was laid off more than a year ago by the town in an economy move.

At that time both Toole and firefighter Jim Ironside were let go. Since then Ironside has been rehired after the department found itself short of full-time firefighters when Adam Staruck retired, former fire chief Terry Lethbridge resigned and long-time Midland firefighter Mickey McIntaggart passed away several weeks ago.

Midland law-makers plan to hold their next public session on Monday, June 13, however Alderman Jeffery, a former Midland firefighter himself, told The Times yesterday "we hope to have the new deputy fire chief picked by then."

He did his best

Despite the chilly and overcast day, this unidentified youngster enjoyed dipnetting at the Wye Marsh Wildlife Interpretation Centre during the Spring Open House held on Sunday, May 15th. Almost 200 people viewed the program on that day with bird watching at its best. The Centre opens free of charge, 7 days per week beginning Saturday, May 21.

Midland Library News

On Wednesday, May 25, Barbara Jones-Sussman, local speech pathologist, will be at the Midland Public Library, Second Floor, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. with special equipment to test the hearing of anyone who would be interested.

This test is free of charge.

On Saturday, May 28, the wind-up of "Shatter Silence Week," the draw for the $500 cash prize will take place at 2 p.m.

The money from the sale of these tickets will be used for the purchase of a Vocal-2.

This machine will be used to help the hearing and speech impaired citizens of our Huronia area. The Quota Club of Huronia have sponsored this endeavour.

The following is a list of new books available at the Midland Public Library:

Fiction include: A pride of Royals by Justin Scott, China Gold by John Tarrant, The obedient wife by Julia O'Faolain, Rogue's march by W.T. Tyler, Dragonfire by Bill Pronzini, Ramage's devil by Dudley Pope.

Non-Fiction include: Strike for freedom! by Robert Eringer, Whatever happened to Maggie and other people I've known by Edna Staebler, Ojibway ceremonies by Basil Johnston, And more by Andy Rooney by Andrew A. Rooney, Empire of wood by Donald MacKay, Harrowsmith Northern gardener by Jennifer Bennett.
