Phelpston Hotel Phillies rode the right arm of Frank Minnings to a win and a tie in two Simcoe Rural Fastball League games in the past week.

Last Thursday they edged Elmvale Expos 1-0 as Finnings outdueled Leo Belcourt of the Expos. Monday night they tied Hillsdale Hustlers 2-2. Mark Ronald was on the hill for Hillsdale and took a disappointing tie as his team was unable to score a runner from third in the last inning with none out.

Hillsdale managed only a tie in their other game last Thursday. Perkinsfield Dial-a-Movie Bantus scored in the last inning to gain a 5-5 draw. Andre Quesnelle pitched for Bantus, while Ronald and Joe Matheson shared the duties for the Hustlers.

Midland Athenian Raiders moved up in the standings with a pair of convincing victories. Last Thursday they shutout Vasey Royals 6-0 as Arlo Guthrie tossed the goose egg for the Raiders, and Steve Tumber took the loss for the Royals.

Monday night Ted Preston got the win and also hit a homerun as the Raiders demolished Caswell's Antiques in a sloppily played game 15-7. Louis Belcourt took the loss for the Penetang team but was the victim of a porous defence.

Another Monday night contest saw Elmvale Expos move closer to a playoff berth by beating Perkinsfield 4-1 in Elmvale. Leo Belcourt recorded the win, and Ernie Quesnelle took the loss.

Draw

Frances Moreau, a local spokesman for the Canadian Diabetes Association, says that a Copper Cliff, Ontario, resident, A. Lische, won $20,000 in the association's recent sweepstake draw, with ticket number 366465.

$1,000 winners were Annette Rieux of Sudbury (No. 364540), N. Fouse of Cambridge (No. 125131), M. Peelar of Barrie (No. 100396), M. Casey of Cornwall (No. 286725) and B. Leeking of Peterborough (No. 264441).

also stayed hot on the tail of Phelpston in the battle for first place with a pair of wins. Monday night they blasted Wyevale Hawks 14-2 as Morris Reynolds hit two homers and Paul Rowe chalked up the win.

Last Thursday the Warriors edged Elmvale Mets 5-4 at home as Rowe notched win number 10 for the season.

Mets also lost their other outing of the week, as they got crunched 10-1 by Vasey seniors on Monday night. Bob Widdes got the win, as Vasey finally found some offence and chalked up their fifth win of the year.

Vasey moved into a good position in the hunt for the playoffs as they won both their games in the last seven days. Besides trouncing Elmvale Mets, they slipped by Wyevale last Thursday in Vasey by a 2-0 count. Bob Widdes threw the shutout, and Bob Lapham took the loss for the Hawks.

Action resumed last night, with five games on tap, but results were not available.

At a league meeting Wednesday night, the executive have decided to move the All Star game back to August 6 from the previously set date of July 24. The game will take place in Elmvale at 7:30 p.m. and the Times sports section will have a list of players for the game in next week's edition.

A Great Place to Work!

Wheelchair baseball a hit

Wheelchair baseball turned out to be a very entertaining sport for the fans and a very difficult sport to play, as the Georgian Bay ladies team found out Sunday afternoon at McGuire Park. They were humbled by the Tiny-Tay Freewheelers 18-3 in a three-inning game played as part of the Tiny-Tay Huronia Handicapped Association's public awareness program. In the photo on the left, Joe Karwacki catches while Shirley McNutt of the All Stars takes her turn at bat. At right McNutt heads for home at a breakneck pace. Once the ball was hit, the trouble began for the inexperienced ladies team.
