

Button pusher

During the special one-hour Wintario broadcast from Sainte-Marie among the Hurons last Thursday, audience members young and old got a chance to stand on camera for a few seconds in front of tens of thousands of people.

Bluegrass boogie

A total of 2,200 bluegrass music fans attended the two-day Maple Valley Club Music Festival last weekend and enjoyed performances by many local bands, including this one, called City County. Club president Homer Lalonde was pleased with the turnout, although less than last year. The club is already making plans for next year, when they'll have several big-name bands to draw the crowds.
