Police Beat

Members of the Midland detachment of the OPP are currently investigating an overnight break-in that occurred earlier this week at Midland Drive-In Theatre.

A Provincial Police spokesman confirmed yesterday that a person or persons, yet unknown, threw a rock through a snack bar window and then climbed inside.

A package of cheese, some frozen hot dogs and chocolate bars were snatched during the break-in as well as a quantity of coins from a pin-ball machine that was forced open.

During the same night, the ticket booth at the front of the drive-in was forced open. But nothing was taken in as much as nothing was left in the building by the operators of the drive-in.
