

Doris Guimond

The late Doris Guimond of Champlain Road, Penetanguishene, died Oct. 28, 1983, in Toronto General Hospital, following a lengthy illness. She was 64 years of age.

The former Doris Smith was born in Kingston, Ont. Toronto was her home for most of her life. Champlain Road, Penetanguishene was her residence for the last 13 years.

She was very interested in building, woodworking, and painting with oils. She was a member of the Penetanguishene Art Workshope.

Fr. T.J. McCann of St. John's Church, Toronto, a friend of the family, officialated at the funeral mass held in St. Ann's Memorial Church, Penetanguishene, on Oct. 31. Interment in St. Ann's Cemetery.

The late Doris Guimond's pallbearers were Garry Wright, Wayne Grant, Edgar Miron, Wayne Petryshan, Brian Wright, and Chris Bellechambers.

Her husband, Victor Guimond of Champlain Road, Penetanguishene, her daughter Judith Guimond of Penetanguishene, her daughter-in-law Regis and husband Edgar Miron, her adopted son and daughter Ron and Linda, and her grandchildren Dale, Todd, and Lisa survive her. Her son Victor predeceased her.

Leon Todd

A funeral service for the late Leon Henry Todd of Victoria Harbour was held on Nov. 14, 1983, in Nicholls Funeral Home, Rev. Wesley Oake officiated. The Jephson Street resident was 62 years of age when he died, on Nov. 10, in Toronto General Hospital. His illness was brief.

The Tay Township native was the son of Charles Lewis Todd and Minnie Alice Walters.

An avid fisherman and hunter, he worked for Maple Leaf Milling, Port McNicoll, for 40 years. He retired two years ago.

On Nov. 4, 1944, Leon Todd married, in Victoria Harbour, Jane

Brown. Leon Todd was a member of the United Church.

Surviving him are his wife, Jane (Brown) Todd, his son Leonard and his wife Judy, his son Karl and his wife

Arden, his daughters Doreen (Mrs. John Sajan) and Barbara (Mrs. Doug Forget), also his brothers and sisters Aberdeen of Midland, William, Harvey, Elva (Mrs. Dick Brown), all of Victoria Harbour, Olive (Mrs. Chas. Ball) of Barrie, and Lewis of Port McNicoll.

His eight grandchildren are Della Sajan, Jeffery, David, Kevin, and Janet Forget, Aron, Lindsay, and Mark Todd.

His parents, his brother Verne and sister Jessie (Prentice) predeceased him.

Interment in Victoria Harbour Union Cemetery.

George Marshall

The late George Everett Marshall of RR 2, Midland, died on Nov. 13, 1983, in Huronia District Hospital, Midland, after seven months' illness. He was in his 77th year.

The native of Craighurst was a full-time farmer all his life. He worked as a longshoreman at the CP Rail elevator in Port McNicoll for approximately 20 years. He retired 10 years ago.

The son of Robert and Mabel (Snider) Marshall attended Craighurst Public School.

On Dec. 21, 1929, in the rectory of St. Paul's United Church, Midland, he married Iva M. Gardnet. He was a member of Wyevale United Church.

His late wife died on Nov. 21, 1970.

His sons Everett, Morley and Wesley, all of RR 2, Midland, survive him. He had 10 grandchildren.

Rev. John Locke officiated at the funeral service held on Nov. 15 in Wyevale United Church. Interment in Wyevale Community Cemetery.

Neighbours and friends Douglas Blow and William Madill, both of RR 1, Wyevale, Arley Jennett and Garnet Marchant, both of RR 2, Midland, George Stott of Wyevale, and Edward Champaigne of RR 1, Wyevale, were his pallbearers.

Flower bearers at the funeral of George Marshall were his neighbours and friends Cecil Blow, Elwood Blow, Victor Hall, and George Parker, all of RR 1, Wyevale.

Albert Sweeting

Albert Gerald Sweeting of St. Catherines, Ont., a former member of St. Paul's United Church, Midland, and a Past Master of Caledonian Lodge No. 249 AF and AM, Midland, died in St. Catherines on Nov. 17, 1983.

The illness of the 83-year-old native of Fowey, Cornwall, England, was short.

The son of Joseph and Mary Ellen Sweeting married Hazel Elson on Dec. 5, 1923, in Midland. A marine engineer, he retired 20 years ago.

In St. Catherines Albert Sweeting was a member of St. Paul Street United Church.

The veteran of the First World War served with the 116th battalion. He was wounded at Vimy Ridge in 1917, at the age of 16.

Surviving Albert

Sweeting are his wife, Hazel Sweeting of St. Catherines, his son Vernon of 902 Yonge Street, Midland, also a sister, Queenie (Mrs. Ken Johnston) of Midland. He had five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

His daughter Anne (Mrs. G. Johnston), his brother Joseph, and his sister Julia (Mrs. Chas. Horne), predeceased him.

Nicholls Funeral Home was the scene of the funeral service held on Nov. 21. Rev. Francis Cook officiated. Interment in Midland's Lakeview Cemetery.

Elmer Moore

The death occurred at Huronia District Hospital on Nov. 19, 1983, of Midland resident Elmer Nelson Moore. The 730 Hugel Ave. resident had been ill for three weeks.

The Midland native

was the son of James Moore and Susan Bawks, and a graduate of Midland Public School and Midland Secondary School. In 1918 he played hockey with the Midland Juniors. Elmer Moore also played with the Midland softball team.

In 1978 in Midland, with Rev. Campbell officiating, Elmer Moore married Laura Hooper-Moore.

A Prudential

Insurance agent and a Pinkerton security guard at RCA, he retired five years ago.

The United Church member was also a member of IOOF Lodge No. 274, Midland.

Surviving him are his wife, Laura Hooper-Moore, his step-son Ken Hooper, his daughter Marilyn Desjardine, also a brother, John of Toronto.

Elmer Moore had four grandchildren and two great grandchildren. His first wife, Velma Cornfield, predeceased him.

Rev. Francis Cook officiated at the funeral service held Nov. 22 in Nicholls Funeral Home. Interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Midland. Pallbearers were Tom Hirst, Ed Collins, Russ Jackson, Don MacEachern, Daniel Weyman, and Arnold Tippen.

Marie Tremblay

The late Marie Tremblay of the Georgian Manor, Penetanguishene, died Nov. 19, 1983, following a lengthy illness. She was 73 years of age.

Born in, and a resident all of her life of Penetanguishene, she was the daughter of the late Emile Lemieux and the late Philomene Vallee.

A funeral mass was held in St. Ann's

Memorial Church on Nov. 22. Fr. L. Dignard officiated. Spring interment in St. Ann's Cemetery.

Her grandsons Martin Dickey, David Dickey, John Bonnin, Kenny

Bonnin, Donald Bonnin, and Michael Bonnin were her pallbearers.

Surviving the late Mrs. Marie Tremblay are her four sons, Leonard Bonnin and Albert Bonnin, both of Penetanguishene, Gerald Bonnin of Toronto, and John Bonnin of Sterling, and her five daughters, Margaret (Mrs. Matt Dickey) of Port Credit, Donna (Mrs. Bill Yarrow) of Lake

Chowichan, B.C., Anita (Mrs. Ross Wilson) of Toronto, Agnes (Mrs. Tom Dickey) of Toronto, and Catherine (Mrs. Wayne Wagstaff) of Novar.

Mrs. Tremblay had 27 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. Both Arthur Bonnin, her first husband, and her second husband, Royal Tremblay, predeceased her, as did her brother Arthur Lemieux and her sister Anna Valade.

Violet Ethel Miller

Violet Ethel Miller, nee Ferguson, passed away on Nov. 20, 1983, at the age of 96 following a lengthy illness. The death occurred at the Collingwood Special Care Nursing Home.

On July 1, 1905, she married Charles Eldon Miller in Elmvale. Violet became a private in World War 1 and served with Battalion 159 from 1914 to 1918.

She was a long-time member of the Flos Township Orange Lodge.

Violet leaves behind two sons, Eldon of Ottawa and Herbert Duane of Collingwood, and two daughters, Nina Ometha McGinnis of Collingwood and Mary Ganton of Kingston, Ontario. Also left to mourn her passing are 18 grandchildren and approximately 40 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the James H. Lynn Funeral Home in Elmvale on Nov. 23, with Rev. Richard Whiteside of Collingwood officiating. Interment followed at Allenwood United Cemetery.

Ronald Hamelin

The late Ronald Hamelin of Kettle's Beach, Tiny Township, died Nov. 21, 1983, in Penetanguishene General Hospital, following a lengthy illness. He was 51 years of age.

Born in Matheson, Ont., Ron Hamelin lived most of his life in the Tiny Township area.

Ron Hamelin was very involved in his community. He was in his third term as a township councillor. He sat on the North Simcoe Sanitary Landfill Committee, and was in his fifth year as Tiny Township's representative. He was a former chairman of the Tiny-Tay Peninsula Planning Board.

Ron Hamelin was instrumental in starting the Tiny Township Planning Board in the early 1960's. He was the board's first secretary, and was a chairman.

He was past president of the Kettle's Beach Ratepayers Association.

A founding member and a past president of the Club Richelieu, he served as the club's district governor.

Ron Hamelin was a former member of the Midland District High School board, and of the Huronia District Hospital board.

Rev. V. Laurin and Rev. W. Manne officiated during the funeral mass held Nov. 24 in St. Patrick's Church, Perkinsfield. Interment in St.

Patrick's Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Leonard Moreau, Gabe Marchand, Leonard Lefaive, Richard Lesperance, Venard Asselin, and Rheal Belanger.

Honourary pallbearers were Tiny Township Reeve Morris Darby, Township Deputy-reeve John Lackie, Township Councillor Gabriel Brunelle, Township Councillor Harry Hunt, Township Clerk Guy Maurice, Club Richelieu representative Bernard Desroches.

Surviving him are his wife Corrie Hamelin of Kettle's Beach, his son Douglas and daughter-in-law Yvonne of Winnipeg, his daughter Suzanne Hamelin of Mississauga, his mother Elise Hamelin of Midland, his sister Lucille Dobson of Toronto, and his brothers Jean-Pierre of Midland and Gilles of Tiny Township.

Two grandchildren, Nathalie and Nicole Hamelin, survive him.

Albert Hamelin, his father, died in 1979.

Jesse Handy

A funeral service for the late Jesse Lockhart Handy of Port McNicoll was held in Nicholls Funeral Home, Midland, on Nov. 21, 1983. Mr. Handy died on Nov. 17, at home at 537 First St., Port McNicoll, after two years illness. He was 82 years of age.

The native of Vasey the son of Johnathon and Elizabeth Handy, married Ellen Jordon in Victoria harbour on Jan. 15, 1925. He has been retired for five years.

The late Jesse Handy was a member of the Orange Lodge, Midland.

Surviving him are his wife, and his son Morely of 780 Eighth Avenue, Port McNicoll, also his brothers and sisters Tom of Seaforth, Ont.,

Louisa Brown of Orillia, and Ida Granger of Kingston, Ont. He had one grandchild and one great grandchild.

Rev. Charles Carter officiated at the funeral service. Interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Midland.

Pallbearers were Eldon Drinkle of RR 1, Midland, Over Carriere and Bernard Carriere, both of RR 1, Penetanguishene, John Brown Jr. of Orillia, and Ray Windross and Ron Windross, both of Port McNicoll.

Jean Evans

A funeral service for the late Jean Evans of 550 King St., Midland, was held on Nov. 23, 1983, at Nicholls Funeral Home, Midland. Dr. Paul Brown officiated.

The former Jean Serrie died at age 84 on Nov. 19, in Huronia District Hospital. The Victoria Harbour native had been ill for one and a half years.

Jerome Serrie and Sophia Serrie were her parents. The Knox Presbyterian Church, Midland, member also belonged to Ideal Rebekah Lodge No. 199, Midland.

Her husband Gordon

Evans, and her daughters Barbara D'Aoust and Jeanne Jones, all of Midland,

Mrs. Deed Atkinson of Barrie, and step-daughter Mrs. J. Utting of Montreal, survive her, as do her brothers Herman of Toronto and Clement of Florida, and her sisters Emma (Green) of Toronto, Mary (Michaels) of Toronto, Mrs. J.

Peterson of Victoria, B.C., and Mrs. M. Bell of Midland.

Jean Evans had seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Midland. Pallbearers were Don Jones, Dan Dubeau, Peter Dubeau, Brian Jones, Ray Chambers, and Kim Ormison.