

Lemieux leads Cents to victory

by RANDY BUTINEAU
Midland Stoneleigh Centennials played one of their consistent games of the season, Friday night, at Centennial arena, up-ending Oro 6-2.
After two periods of play, Midland had built up an insurmountable 6-0 lead.
Shawn Davy started the Cents' scoring, at 12:23, with an unassisted mark. Four minutes later, Mike Magloughlin scored, from Dan Whitton and Brad Copeland. Drew Varley increased the Centennial lead :12 later, with Whitton and Magloughlin drawing the assists. Shots on goal in the first period were even at 12.

John Walter started the second period scoring, at the :23 mark, from Mike Newhouse and Al Whidden. Marlon Gieseler increased the lead to 5-0, with a shorthanded goal, at 3:26. Dean Marcellus and Mike Leo assisted. One minute later, Whidden scored to make the score 6-0, from Marcellus and Chris Lemieux. Midland outshot Oro 13-10, in the second frame.

Cents' third period was a costly one. Not only did Oro break Lemieux's shut-out bid, Centennials' leading scorer, John Walter was tossed out of the game for his involvement in a fight. Walter was also slapped with a three game suspension.
Midland had a lapse early in the third period, with Oro scoring their first of two goals in the period. Oro's Dean Clark broke Lemieux's shut-out at 1:18 of the third stanza. Oro didn't score, until the 19:24 mark of the period, on the powerplay. Cents outshot Oro 10-9 in the period and 35-31 in the game.

Centennials' goalie, Chris Lemieux played an outstanding game, which earned him the Centennials' "Player of the Game" honors.
Walter's suspension comes at a time when the Centennials' are up against some very stiff competition. Walter missed Mondays game in Stayner and will also sit out games against Gravenhurst, on Friday and Penetang on Sunday.

Kings crown Essa to the tune 19-2

Once again, Penetang Kings displayed their potent offense and some sound defense, enroute to a 19-2 destruction of the Essa 80's, in Penetang, Friday night.
Kings scored three times in the first period, seven times in the second and notched nine more in the third. Penetang had built up a 10-0 lead, after two periods of play.
Al Melnyk and Jim Plouffe led the King's awesome offense, scoring four goals each.
Penetang didn't score their first goal until the halfway mark of the first period when Bob Weatherill scored, from Plouffe. Less than a minute later, Plouffe added one of his own, from Dave Robillard and John Monague. The final goal of the first period, came off the stick of Brian forget, at the 18:00 mark. Penetang outshot Essa 11-9.

In the second period, Penetang scored five goals, in just over three minutes. Rob Roy started the onslaught with Forget and Blair McReynolds, at 8:15.

Less than a minute later, Al Melnyk netted his first of four, from Brian McReynolds and Plouffe. Dave Robillard made the score 6-0, with an assist going to John O'Hara. At 11:18, Blair McReynolds went to work, scoring twice, in :10. Roy and Forget assisted on both of McReynold's goals.
The second period scoring was rounded out by Phil Cinq-Mars and Al Melnyk. Shots on goal were 10-7 in the Kings favour.
Forget started the third period scoring, at 2:31, with Blair McReynolds and Roy assisting.

After Forget's goal, Penetang exploded for seven goals, in less than five and half minutes.
On Dec. 10 the Midland Legion Major Midgets travelled to the third Annual Midget tournament in Huntsville.
The first game was against Acton, and with goals from Bruce Marsden, Chris Moreau Kevin Belcourt and strong goaltending from Gary Watson they defeated Acton 3-0. A medal for the most valuable player was Kings' scoring. The third period shots total were 11-7 for Penetang.

In the game, the Kings fired 39 shots, to Essa's 23.
Brian McReynolds given to Gary Watson. The second game was against a stubborn North Bay team who never gave up.
At 4:34 of the first overtime period Kevin Belcourt scored to give had himself a big night, scoring once and assisting on six others. Jim Plouffe had four goals and two assists and Al Melnyk also netted four goals and assisted on another.

Midland a 4-3 victory.
The next game for the Legion Major Midgets is Friday night at the Midland arena, against Collingwood for first place in Georgian Bay League. Game time is 9 p.m.
