

Obituaries

Leonard Vivian

The death occurred on April 1, 1984, in his home, of Simcoe Street, Port McNicoll resident Leonard James Vivian. Mr. Vivian was ill for seven months. He was 61 years of age.

The Toronto native worked as a mechanic at Bourgeois Motors in Midland, and, most recently, Advanced Extrusions Ltd. of Penetanguishene.

While in the Royal Canadian Navy, Leonard Vivian served in the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, Europe, England, Ireland, Scotland, and the United States. He was a member of Royal Canadian Legion Bay Port Branch No. 545, Port McNicoll.

Mr. Vivian was the son of James Leonard Vivian and Frances Alice Page. He attended Galt Collegiate and St. Andrew's Public School. He married Mary Wilma Wood in Murillo, Ont.

Surviving him are his wife, Mary Wilma Vivian, his three sons Leonard James Jr. of Midland, Lorne Wayne of Sioux Lookout, Ont., and Keith Edward of Toronto, his three daughters Lenore Coralea Moggey of Thunder Bay, Ont., Dallas Eleanor Dubinsky of Hamilton, and Frances Wilma Moran of Alliston, and by his mother, Frances Vivian of Ayr, Ont. His brother Kenneth Leslie Vivian of Ayr also survives him.

Leonard Vivian had 12 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Rev. Al Farthing officiated at the funeral service held in Nicholls Funeral Home, Midland, on April 4. Interment in the spring in Lakeview Cemetery, Midland.

His pallbearers were Joe Smith of Port McNicoll, Dave Kenwell and Eddie MacDonald, both of Toronto, Richard Ladouceur of Midland, George Restrup of Penetanguishene, Dr.

C.A. Talbot of Port of Midland, Harold Julian Lehaie of McNicoll, Albert Gorab Woolley of Midland, and Midland.

Edward Joseph Bylow Jr.

The death occurred at Huronia District Hospital on March 21, 1984, of Edward Joseph Bylow Jr., of King Street, Midland, Mr. Bylow was 50 years of age.

Mr. Bylow was a factory worker at Decor Metal Products.

Mr. Bylow was the son of Elizabeth Leduc and Edward Bylow Sr. He is survived by his wife Alma Bylow of Midland, son Brent Bylow of Midland, daughter Mary (Mrs. David Fletcher) of Don Mills and by his mother.

Surviving brothers and sisters of the late Mr. Bylow are Don of Midland, Earl of Toronto, Rena (Mrs. Lloyd Williams) of Toronto, Delsie (Mrs. John Logan) of Toronto, Lorretta (Mrs. Isadore Bressette) of Victoria Harbour, and Lavina

(Mrs. Archie Morin) of Penetanguishene.

Mr. Bylow is also survived by four grandchildren.

Father Stephen Somerville officiated at the mass held in St. Margaret's Church, on March 24. Spring interment in St. Margaret's Cemetery.

Pallbearers for the late Mr. Bylow were Gary Bylow of Midland, Brian Bylow of Midland, John Lawrence of Midland, Lindy Latondress of Toronto, Isadore Norton of Midland, and Jim Cote of Midland.

The Midland native attended St. Mary's School in Midland. He married Alma Arthurs on July 5, 1952, in St. Margaret's Church, the church of which he was a member.

Golda Beech

The death occurred at Penetanguishene General Hospital on March 25, 1984, of Golda Beech, a resident of Port McNicoll. She was in her 73rd year.

Rev. Al Farthing officiated at the funeral service held March 27, at Nicholls Funeral Home. Spring interment in Sprucehaven Cemetery, Brinston, Ont.

Mrs. Beech was head nurse of the communicable disease ward of the Ottawa Civic Hospital. She retired in 1972.

Mrs. Beech was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Thorpe. She was the wife of the late Flight

Lt. Gerry Beech, who she married in 1940. She is survived by her brother, Lyall Thorpe of Port McNicoll.

The Brinston native attended Iroquois High School.

Midland budget April 18

Midlanders should know the details of the 1984 municipal budget by supper time a week from today.

The 1984 budget is scheduled for release at 5 p.m. on April 18.

The town council will meet on April 16 to check the budget for the last time.

FETONS LA HURONIE

SAMEDI,
LE 14 AVRIL 1984

'OPEN HOUSE'

au Centre d'activités françaises 14h à 16h
entrée gratuite

"SOUPER COMMUNAUTAIRE"

à la Salle Paroissiale de Lafontaine
servi à 19h
entrée: $10.00 (inclu l'entrée au Café chantant).

"CAFE CHANTANT"

à la Salle Paroissiale de Lafontaine
à 20h30
entrée: $4.00 adulte; $3.00 étudiant et âge d'or

N.B. Les billets pour le souper communautaires doivent être réservés et payés à l'avance. Communiquez avec Monique et/ou Marie au Centre d'activités françaises: 63, rue Main, Penetanguishene. 549-3116.

LE SOUPER COMMUNAUTAIRE AINSI QUE LE CAFE CHANTANT ONT LIEU SOUS L'AUTORITE D'UN PERMIS D'OCCASION SPECIALE.

Toronto Prices Barrie Service

COMMODORE 64⁺ SPECIALS

64 Computer	359 ⁹⁵
Color Monitor	379 ⁹⁹
Disc Drive	379 ⁹⁹

ASK ABOUT OUR IN-HOUSE WARRANTY

taylor business computers

285 Dunlop St. W. at Anne, Barrie 726-4100

The Jobs Go To The Qualified Hands On Computer Training At Computech School Of Computers

COURSE: WORD PROCESSING

Class - two evenings a week for two weeks. 12 hours of hands-on instruction. maximum of 6 students per class.

ONLY $95.00

COURSE: BASIC PROGRAMMING

Class - Mon. - Thurs. 4:00 - 6:30, small classes.

ONLY $75.00

BOOK KEEPING

INCOME STATEMENTS PREPARED EVERY MONTH

FROM $67.00 - PER MONTH

— BUSINESS - TAX — RETURNS —

SPACE FOR LEASE IN BUSY COMPUTECH CENTRE

ideal for the following types of businesses.

- Photo Copier - Sales & Service
- Typewriter & Office Equipment - Sales & Service
- Secretarial Service
- Programming Service

FOR INFORMATION CALL: