Police Beat

A total of 81 general occurrences were investigated by the Midland detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police during the week ending, May 14, reports OPP Const. Murray Cooper, the detachment's community services officer.

***

Four thefts, two cases of shop-lifting, seven wilful damage occurrences, one assault and two break-ins, head the list of crimes Midland OPP probed during the period May 7-14.

***

Impaired drivers drew the special attention of our OPP during this past week.

In all, a total of four drivers were charged with being impaired, OPP records show.

***

Traffic accidents have been on the rise in North Simcoe in recent weeks.

From May 7-14, OPP detachment personnel investigated no fewer than 11 motor-vehicle accidents on area highways.

Four of the mishaps were listed as "non-reportable" in that none of the crashes resulted in more than $400 damage.

However, three people suffered injuries as a result of being involved in several of the collisions and were rushed to local hospital for treatment.

OPP advise several charges were laid against a Penetanguishene man following a two-car collision on Hwy. 93, Friday evening.

Police report, a vehicle operated by Stanley Marion, 19, of Poyntz Street, was northbound Highway 93 at approximately 6:13 p.m. when his vehicle crossed the roadway to west shoulder coming into collision with '76 Chevrolet operated by Karen MacSpurren, 38, of Con. 10, Waubaushene.

Marion's vehicle entered the east ditch, striking a culvert, several lawns and shrubbery.

Marion was charged with criminal negligence, impaired driving, excess alcohol, driving under suspension and fail to wear seatbelt.

Midland OPP have charged a Peel Street, Penetanguishene, resident with several charges following a pursuit and an accident south end of King Street late Sunday evening.

OPP report after charging a driver, 39, with careless driving the subject drove off erratically, through town streets and was finally involved in a collision at the south end of King Street.

The accused fled on foot in the Wye Marsh area. He finally surrendered to police and has been charged with dangerous driving, failing to stop for police in addition to original careless driving offence.

James Richard Brett, 39, will appear in Penetanguishene Court, May 24.

OPP were called to investigate wilful damage to three garage doors at different residences on the evening of May 11; two on Con. 14; one on Con. 16 Tiny.

Police report an auto was driven into garage doors of residences owned by Alcime Valee, Delphis Blondin, and Cyril Belcourt.

Doing his bit

Doug Herbert, son of Midland Alderman Dan Herbert, did his bit to help clean up the Midland waterfront on Saturday, in the company of his father. Saturday, by the way, was Pitch-In Day.
