

Math genius!

Peter Milley, a 10-year-old, Grade 6 student from Bayview School competed in the Canadian Mathematics Competition, writing the Pascal Contest which is prepared for students at the Grade 9 level. Peter achieved a mark of 122.5 out of 150, which is only exceeded by 61 students in Ontario out of seven to eight thousand taking part. The results put Peter in the top one percent of all competitors and he has a place on the Ontario honour roll and the zone honour roll.

News from EDHS

PETER DESROCHES

On Wednesday, May 30, the 124 Law Class took a field trip to Barrie to see a murder trial with a jury, being held in the Supreme Court of Ontario.

Students found it very worthwhile to sit in on such an interesting case and to see how the court proceeds through a trial.

They arrived back at EDHS around 2:15 p.m. with a better understanding of how our justice system operates.

Several EDHS students had a good learning experience at Camp Kitchikewana. They spent several days supervising young students. It was a very enjoyable trip and they had fun while learning about responsibility.

The Outdoors Club has been planning a canoe trip and left on May 31st and returned Sunday evening.

Except for a little rain on Sunday morning, the trip turned out to be a very enjoyable one.

EDHS student's council is repainting the cafeteria. The new designing was done by Rodger Allen, Kim Tuck, and Seyan Margism. They are hoping to be finished by Monday.

EDHS student's council is presenting the Summer Prom '84 on Friday, June 8th at EDHS. The dance is semi-formal and starts at 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The music is by Output Plus (Q 107) and there is a cold buffet dinner afterward.

Honoured for their service

Two retired operators of the R.A. Hoey, the ferry which operates between Cedarpoint and Christian Island, were honoured Thursday, May 31 in an awards presentation ceremony at Cedarpoint. Sam Jamieson, 68, is a retired supervisor of the Hoey, who gave 15 years of between 1966 and 1981. Mr. Jamieson has seven children and 12 grandchildren. Retired motor launch operator Willis Copegog, 66, began his service on the Hoey in 1965 and retired in 1982. He has twelve children and 10 grandchildren. Left to right are Jack Gover of the department of Indian Affairs in Toronto, formerly of the Orillia office; Willis Copegog and his wife Hazel, Bella and Sam Jamieson, and Mel Jacobs, District Manager of Indian Affairs in Peterborough. The awards presented the two men were signed Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau in recognition of their years of faithful service.

MARY NAHUIS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Nahuis, has graduated with distinction from the University of Guelph, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree. She is employed in the university's microbiology department. In September she plans to enter the Master of Science program in microbiology and immunology offered at Queen's University Kingston.

WENDY LYNN
