

Perkinsfield dumps Phelpsston as Quesnelle wins third game

by
RANDY BUTINEAU
Perkinsfield Commodore Hotel Bantus and Andre Quesnelle continued their winning ways, Monday evening in Phelpsston. Bantus recorded their third win of the season, outscoring Phelpsston 7-1 in Simcoe Rural Fastball League action. Andre Quesnelle picked up his third win of the season. Doug Murphy was relieved by Frank Minnings in the fourth inning. Perkinsfield scored four times in the second inning, after Phelpsston had taken a 1-0 lead in the first.

With two out, Doug Fox doubled, Ben Pauze walked and Henri Pauze tripled, driving in two runs. Rob Wilson followed suit with a double, knocking in Perkinsfield's third run of the inning. Kevin Belcourt was safe on an error. In Phelpsston's second inning, John Minnings walked and stole second. John DeGroots singled and Minnings scored on the play. DeGroots scored on Barry Marley's sacrifice fly. Perkinsfield took a 5-3 lead in the third inning as James Dupuis reached base on an error. After two sacrifice bunts moved him to third, Doug Fox singled him home. Phelpsston narrowed the margin to within one run in the sixth inning. Pat Valender singled and was sacrificed to second. John Minnings singled, driving Valender home. Bantus added two insurance runs in the top of the seventh inning. Shawn Davy singled, as did James Dupuis. Andre Quesnelle helped his own cause by driving both men home with a single.

Perkinsfield had nine hits and two errors on the night, while Phelpsston had seven hits and four errors. Perkinsfield's next game is Thursday evening, when they host Wyevale at the Perkinsfield ball diamond. Game time is 7 p.m.

Hawks edge Performance Sports

by
JAMIE ROBILLARD
Penetang-Midland Ball Hockey League action resumed on Sunday with four games at the Penetang Arena. Huronia Optical Hawks scored six straight second period goals en route to a 7-6 win over Performance Motor Sports in an exciting game.

Performance led 5-1 before Blair McReynolds with the hat trick, Dan O'Hara with two goals and Lyle Buttineau connect for second period markers, in the Hawks' comeback. Brian McReynolds scored Huronia's opening goal, while Jeff Wright with a pair, Kirk Swales, Steve Charlebois, Carl Weber and Peter Wright replied for Performance. Stoneleigh Pontiacs with Mac Spears scoring two goals downed John Desroches Const. Ltd. Blockbusters 4-2. John Walter and Paul Duval also tallied once each for the Pontiacs, with Brad Copeland and Brendon Crowley scoring the Block-busters goals. Commodore Hotel Kings edged Mr. Car Wash 5-4 with Jerry Ladouceur scoring three goals for the Kings. Joe Beausoliel and Trent Maracle fired one goal each for Commodore. Car Wash's scoring was shared by four players: Randy Asselin, Randy Butineau, Wilson Cowan and Brian Garner. Hindson Marine Islanders squeezed past Stewart's Gulf Oilers 7-5. The Islanders were led by John O'Hara and Chris McConnell with two goals and Dave Genier, Mike Brunelle and Brian Brooks each with one. Stewart's replied with Ken Mitchell's scoring twice, while Carl Cowan and Terry Spiker tallied once each. In the fifth scheduled game, S. Charlebois Haulage and Excavating Diggers won by a 2-0 score in a defaulted game when E&R Discount did not have enough players to play. The mid season draft will be held Sunday, June 17 at 3 p.m. at the Penetang Arena. Any new players wishing to have their names put on the list should phone E&R Discount at 526-3996 Monday to Saturday during the day before the Wednesday, June 13 entry deadline.

Memories Roadhouse squad 14-13. Paul Henderson was the winning pitcher and Tony Light scored the winning run for Leitz. Ogilvie Mills recorded their first victory of the year as they edged Daysco 8-7. Gary Larmand took the victory and aided and abetted his cause with three RBI's. Wilkins Auto handed

Bay Mills an 11-4 loss. Dave Wilkins was the winning hurler. R & R Highland collared Daysco 24-4. John Armstrong was the winning pitcher. Donut Villa went to work on Ogilvies, at the tune of 21-1. Leitz made it a perfect day, as they outscored Video Daze 12-3. Paul Henderson was the winning pitcher.

Leitz dumps Memories

Huronian Slo-pitch leagues rain-out games were played, last Sunday, at McGuire Park in Penetang. Dollartown Saints and Wilkins Auto battled to an 8-all tie. Randy Robitaille was the winning hurler, as Bay Mills outscored Techform 15-12. Ken Yon was perfect at the plate, going 4 for 4. Leitz upset the hot

Memories Roadhouse squad 14-13. Paul Henderson was the winning pitcher and Tony Light scored the winning run for Leitz. Ogilvie Mills recorded their first victory of the year as they edged Daysco 8-7. Gary Larmand took the victory and aided and abetted his cause with three RBI's. Wilkins Auto handed

Bay Mills an 11-4 loss. Dave Wilkins was the winning hurler. R & R Highland collared Daysco 24-4. John Armstrong was the winning pitcher. Donut Villa went to work on Ogilvies, at the tune of 21-1. Leitz made it a perfect day, as they outscored Video Daze 12-3. Paul Henderson was the winning pitcher.

Mets take Expos 7-1 in Rural Fastball

Picture perfect position

There's always plenty of excitement when the Mets and the Expos play in Elmvale. This picture, taken behind the screen at home plate, Monday night, gives you an umpire's view of the action. -Jo-Anne McGinnis photo

by
JO-ANNE MCGINNIS

The Elmvale Mets defeated the Elmvale Expos 7-1 Monday night in Simcoe Rural Fastball League action.

Paul Whitton of the Expos was the first batter and he flied out to Ken Graham at short.

Dan Rowat singled as did pitcher Dave Jamieson but Rowat was forced out at second.

Gary Turner flied out to Randy Greenlaw at third for the final out.

Bruce Graves walked and Graham reached first safely to advance Graves on a Kirk Hargrave error.

Steve Faragher was called out on an infield fly and then the Mets put on the double steal.

Tim Belcourt walked to load up the bases and then the first run of the game was scored when Wayne Dixon was walked. Jeff Kenny struck out and Paul McGinnis walked to score Graham but was forced out at second.

Marc Townes blasted a hard grounder to short stop Graham who handled it for the first Expos out of the second.

Mike Townes then singled to centre but Steve Faragher pulled off a double play when John Miller hit to second.

Joe Timms of the Mets walked in the second and advanced when Bruce Graves laid down a perfect safe bunt.

Graham then reached first safely but forced out Timms at third.

Hargrave errored on Faragher's shot and the bases were loaded once again.

Tim Belcourt hit to Hargrave who forced Graves out at home.

Wayne Dixon's ball took an infield hop to score Graham and make the score 3-0.

Jeff Kenny waited out a three and two count for a walk which scored the Met's fourth run.

Paul McGinnis flied out to right to Paul Marley to retire the side.

Joe Timms made a beautiful catch in right field to rob Kirk Hargrave of a hit. Paul Whitton doubled on a line drive down third.

Rowat was the second Expos out on an infield play and advanced Whitton to third. Faragher handled Dave Jamieson's ground ball for the third out. Randy Greenlaw stroked the Met's first hit of the game at this point.

Timms struck out but catcher Paul Whitton had a mental lapse and threw the ball to first even though it was an automatic out and Greenlaw stole second, and then stole third on a passed ball.

Graves ground out to the pitcher and then Hargrave errored on Graham's hit which scored Greenlaw and the Met's fifth run.

Graham stole second and Steve Faragher, the obvious team leader on the field, hit a single to centre.

Jamieson bobbled the ball and Graham scored.

Tim Belcourt hit to Hargrave who flipped it to Radar at second for the third out.

Gary Turner flied out to Wayne Dixon at first for the first Expos out.

Marc Townes flied out to Bruce Graves in left and Tim Belcourt struck out the pitcher for the final out.

Dixon was the first Met's out on an infield play Jeff Kenny doubled on a line drive down third.

McGinnis sacrificed him to third and Greenlaw hit to the pitcher for three out.

In the fifth inning Mike Townes struck out and John Miller and Kirk Hargrave grounded out.

Timms doubled to right centre, John Miller struck out on a change-up, Shakey ground out.

Faragher singled to left to score Timms and Belcourt ground out to Gary Turner at third.

Paul Whitton flied out to Graham in the sixth. Dan Rowat hit a smash to right field and Timms made his second perfect catch of the game.

Wayne Dixon's ball was caught in right field by John Miller.

Jeff Kenny reached first on Gary Turner's error.

Paul McGinnis singled but forced Kenny out at second.

McGinnis stole second but Randy Greenlaw hit to the pitcher to make three out.

Gary Turner walked in the seventh and Marc Townes singled.

The pitcher struck out the pitcher and Mike Townes hit to third. He was thrown out at first but Turner scored to make the final score 7-1.