

Married

The marriage of Laurie Ann McCormick and Pierre Chantal Coulombe took place at St. Kevin's Church, Feb 25, 1984. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith McCormick and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaetan Coulombe, all of Welland.

The officiating clergyman was Rev. Denis W. Grecco.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white silk gown with stream line ruffles, embroidered front and a cameo centre with a high collar and silk buttoned back. The long sleeves had ruffled wrist bands and embroidered flowers with the skirt flowing in a fanned ruffled train. She wore a hat with laced wide brim and mesh net veil.

Her bouquet was of red and pink carnations with white roses and baby's breath.

The maid-of-honour was Nancy Anderson of Welland. The bridal attendants were Leah Thurman, Barrie Darquise Maddalena, Wendy McCormick, Cindy Coulombe all of Welland and Keeley Chusing of Pickering. The flower girl was Yvette McCormick and ring bearer was Patrick

Maddalena both of Welland.

The best man was Alan Pare and ushering duties were performed by Gilles Bisson, Mark Forster, Keith McCormick, Mike Coulombe and Richard Coulombe all of Welland.

The reception was held at Rose Villa in Welland followed by a honeymoon trip to the Bahamas.

The newlywed live in Welland. Out-of-town guests were present from Midland, Stayner, Pickering, Tillsonburg, Toronto, Vancouver, B.C. and Quebec.

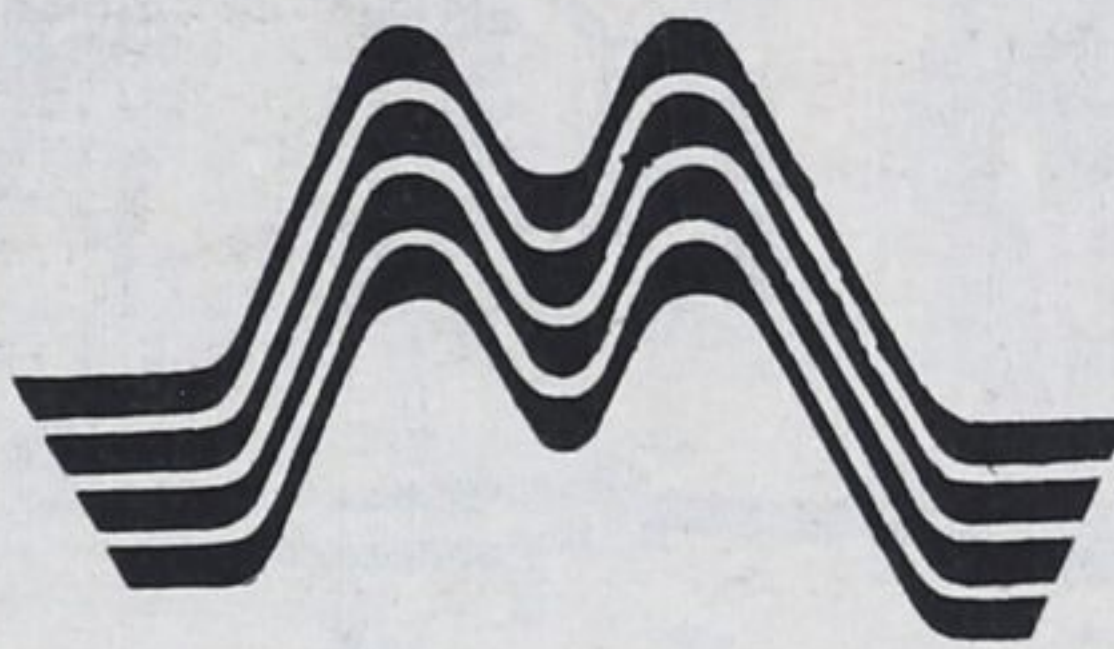

Her uncle, Mr. Harold McCormick of Trenton, Ont., was master of ceremonies. Her grandmother is Mrs. Veronica McCormick Bates of Midland.
