Rookies win fifth in row

by BEV GREENWOOD
In Ladies Powderpuff play on Thursday night, the D & M Rookies extended their winning streak to five by defeating the Blue Mystics 14 - 10.

hold the Rookies who combined strong defensive play by Evelyn Hughes and a hot streak at bat complete with a round-tripper by Pat Cruise to come from behind and win the game.

Solid Gold's Maureen (Moe) McKinnon and Ruth Oosterheis each picked up a homerun while Karen Simpson went for the triple with two rbi's.

The Mystics led in the early part of the game, but even with strong pitching from Marg Sweet who put three out in one inning, couldn't

Profiles of The Olympians

As part of its complete daily coverage of all the events at the Los Angeles Olympics, CBC Sports will present over 100 profiles of some of the world's greatest athletes.

Generally, says Naylor, the profiles will be scheduled to coincide with live coverage of many of the events.

Ernie Afaganis is the narrator.

MGCC Business women winners

Big winners of our recent nine hole play Thursday evenings were Judy Bales and Helen Gladstone.

Come on out members and join in the fun.

Local art displayed

The 12-member Georgian Bay Art Society presented a dazzling display of art in several mediums at the Midland Senior Citizen Centre over the weekend. A wide variety of subjects done in oils, acrylics, water colours and ink were put on display to the public for sale and viewing. Proceeds of the sales will go toward society development. Two members of the society, President Gladys Robinson and Gertie Neilson are shown above on the left and right respectively with some of the art work in the display.
