

Super prize for just $2 investment, eh?

Lori Ward, the 23-year-old winner of Penetanguishene Rotary Club's Grew boat draw, came up to Central Marine in Midland Tuesday night to be presented with the key to her new boat. In the photo, Ces Mailloux, ticket sales chairman, gives key to Ms. Ward. She bought one ticket on the boat when she was visiting friends in the area in February. The ticket was bought at Mountainview Mall. Yes, Ms. Ward said, she was surprised when the phone call came advising her of the win. Commented one person on hand when the key was turned over: "It's not very often you can buy a $20,000 boat for $2." Tickets sold for $2.

A fun way to spend an afternoon

These prize winning costumes won special awards Sunday afternoon at Smith's Camp's (Midland) annual parade...an event that has been staged each summer at the camp for decades.

A car travelling on the Tiny Beaches Road last Saturday at 1:15 a.m. followed a car in front of it off the road and into some trees.

Elizabeth Hull, 20, of Willowdale, and Blair Corrin, 22, also of Willowdale, have both been charged by the Midland OPP with careless driving. The two cars collided. Total damage was $12,000.

Occupants of a 16 foot Century boat which burst into flame in Port McNicoll last Saturday, after taking on fuel, were treated for minor burns to arms and legs in Huronia District Hospital.

Niela Mehaffey, 47, of Frederick Street, Midland, and two passengers, Janet Orser, 28, of William Street, Midland, and Dora Hirsch, 25, of Balm Beach, dove overboard and summoned help after the fire broke out. The vessel stalled and Mehaffey was attempting to start it when the fire erupted. The Port McNicoll Fire Department put out the fire.
