by RANDY BUTINEAU
The 30,000 Island Open Golf Tournament once again, provided a dramatic conclusion, with the winner, Mark Brewer from Whitevale, taking the title by one stroke, thanks to a birdie on the final hole, at Midland Golf and Country Club.

Brewer edged out Warren Sye of Weston and Jamie Train from Aurora to capture the prestigious golf title.

Richard Bruneau from Midland Golf and Country Club played his best golf ever and he won the Low Net award for his effort. Brewer had a two round total of 138, including a two under par 68 in the second round of the tourney, on Sunday. Train shot a 69 on the day.

Defending champion, Mike Jackson from Midland Golf and Country Club finished fifth overall in the 180 golfer field.

Bulls win!

Midland Bulls Rugby Club has come up with its second victory in a row this time clipping visiting York County Rugger Club 28-18.

Bulls won the match thanks to six tries and two conversions.

Midland took the lead early in the match-up and never looked back.

The home squad demonstrated a great deal of skill handling the plum-stone-shaped leather rugby ball with a great deal of authority.

The game featured a great deal of forward action while Midland's backs provided some good running as well as timely kicking.

Todd Clarke, Peter Stubbins and Ken Maheu played superb rigger for locals.

Midland's scrums were tidy while the home team line-outs were aggressive.

Saturday's league game truly was never in doubt.

All in all Saturday's game was a classic affair which simply warrants a "Well done Bulls" at the end of this report.
