Powder Puff season drawing to a close

by BEV GREENWOOD

The final games of the Ladies Powderpuff Softball were played Thursday, August 23.

In game one, the first place D & M Rookies took on the last place Solid Gold, defeating them soundly 25-7.

The Rookies had solid pitching from both Eileen McTague and Cathy Bednarz and Marilyn Gervais picked up a triple in the third to bring them the win.

In game two, the Navel Force downed the Blue Mystics 9-6 in a well played game.

Both teams fielded extremely well, with Shelley Billson of the Force grabbing a great fly at second and Bev Greenwood of the Mystics doing the same.

T-Ball playoffs ready to go

Three rain out games were played in Midland T-Ball action, Monday night at Parkview and Bayview Schools.

A & P Store outscored Bourgeois Motors 29-15. Dairy Queen edged Realty World 33-31, in the only two games played at Parkview.

In the only game played at Bayview,

Courtesy Chrysler upset first place J. Harvey Surveyors 22-17.

The playoff schedule has been set, as Courtesy will play Dairy Queen and Realty World will have a playoff game against A & P, with the winner taking on J. Harvey and the loser plays Bourgeois.
