

Superannuated teachers hear from the expert

by IRENE MARCHAND
The autumn meeting of the Midland branch of the Ontario Association of Superannuated Teachers met Oct. 4 in the Friendship Room of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Members and guests were welcomed by the president Anne LePan. Glenn Cooper, a Midland resident, an investment consultant and an expert in investment counselling was guest speaker.

Cooper has travelled widely; and his talk was interesting and informative.

Evidence of this was shown in the lively discussion which followed.

With silence, followed by prayer, tribute was paid to the memory of Mrs. Anita DeVillers, a member who passed away in August.

This year the Christmas luncheon will be held Dec. 6 in the Friendship Room.

The ladies of the Baptist Church have consented to do the catering.

The customary exchange of gifts between the members will be discontinued; but it was agreed the custom of donating presents to residents in local retirement and nursing homes should continue.

Anne LePan and Margaret Hood, who represented Midland at the provincial conference in Peterborough gave reports on the two-day meeting and the workshops.

All retired women teachers in this area are cordially invited to O.A.S.W.T. meetings.

As you are probably aware, we no longer charge fines for overdue books, but this does not mean that you can ignore the due date. Every day that you keep a book over its due date you are depriving someone of the pleasure of reading that book. So please be responsible and bring back your books on time.
