

Missionaries speak Sunday to Wyevale congregation

Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Dyer, formerly of Wyevale and now missionaries to Japan with OMS International, will speak at Wyevale

United Church on Sunday, Oct. 21 at 11:30 a.m.

Veteran missionaries to Japan with OMS International, Stan and Joanna Dyer reveal that the great need for today is "to communicated Christ effectively to a lonely and affluent Japan." Believing this task can be best accomplished by Japanese Christians, the Dyers attempt to stir the Japanese church to evangelism, outreach, and revival. The training of pastors and evangelists is important in the program to multiply the witness for Christ in Japan.

Stan's first OMS appointment to Japan was in 1955. For three years he worked with an Every Creature Crusade team in rural evangelism. Following five years of college and graduate studies in the United States, he returned to Japan with Joanna in 1965.

From 1965 to 1984, he worked with the church in pioneer evangelism and taught missions, evangelism, and English at Tokyo Biblical Seminary. Joanna assisted in evangelism through cooking classes and the world missions, of which he will be named dean. Continuing her cooking / evangelism classes at local churches, Joanna has also served as head nurse of the Christian academy in Japan.

Stan is a graduate of Greenville College and Asbury Theological Seminary. He took his Doctor of Missiology degree at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois. Joanna, a registered nurse, received her degree from Kanawa Valley School of Nursing. The Dyers have three children, Rebecca Bartmas, Robert, and Regina. They have one granddaughter, Sarah Jo.

OMS International, formerly The Oriental Missionary Society, is a faith mission unfiliated with any denomination. It specializes in evangelism, training nationals, and planting churches in 14 countries.
