MRS. F. CRAIG
Craighurst Fitness Fanatics are well into the fall 4H project. Officers for this club are president Anne Wellnhoffer, Vice-president Leanne Carr, Secretary Joanne Frid, Press Reporter Heather Wilson. Leaders are Mavis Burnham and Barbara Dunsmore. The emphasis in this project is on fitness, diet and health. St. John's Church youth group had a campout last weekend in Copeland Forest. Congratulations to Rev. Jim and Vanessa Brown on the birth of their son, Thomas James, on Oct. 9. A brother for Sarah. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barr of Sydney,

Craighurst

Australia, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Max Craig.

St. John's ACW will be holding its annual bazaar, tea and sale of goods today, beginning at 1:30 p.m. in the afternoon.

Terry Hodgson is having the house on the Hodgson homestead restored. It is great to know that Terry will once again be living in Craighurst.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beech of Burlington were Sunday visitors with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Beech.

The October meeting of Craighurst Women's Institute was held in the home of Mrs. B. Dunsmore. The meeting was chaired by Mrs. Vivian Ivey. Motto: Many people are confusing the high cost of living with the cost of high living. Siske Pratt prepared the comment which was read by Mavis Burnham. Roll call was to give positive or negative comment on a Canadian product. Consensus seemed to be that Canadian products rank with the best.

The secretary read President Nancy Murphy's report of the area convention, held in Elmvale Oct. 10, which she and Siske Pratt attended as delegates from our branch.

Anne Wilson, convener of family and consumer affairs, introduced her speaker, Linda Caldwell Lord of OMAF, who spoke on bazaars and fund raising. This was a very timely topic since this is bazaar time. Caldwell Lord gave many helpful hints and answered many questions.

Members are asked to bring fund raising ideas for the next meeting

Dan Yashinsky, the Wandering Storyteller, delighted folks Friday night. He told such stories as "Gunnywolf", "Lazy Jack" and more. I know one story that all of us kids enjoyed most was

"The Bear Hunt". We all joined in with much enthusiasm, echoing his words, and going through the motions along with Dan. Truly, he is like the Pied Piper, with his pipe, leading us along the story paths. Dan came to us under the auspices of Mariposa in the Schools and the Georgian Library System. He is a member of "Storytellers School of Toronto". If you happen to be in Toronto on a Friday night do plan to attend "1001 Nights of Storytelling". Phone (416) 924-8635 for more information.

Elizabeth "Bunny" Smith resigns from the Library Board as of Oct. 26.

We are losing her and her family, as they are moving to their new home on the waterfront in Victoria Harbour.

Our best wishes go with them.

Lana Garrett is now recuperating at home, and is feeling better.

Lions Club has resurfaced the rink in Talbot Park with asphalt and white concrete powder.

This should extend the use of the rink for an extra four to six weeks for ice skating, hockey, etc., depending on the weather of course. The cost was under $9,000, not including the man-hours of the Lions Club members.

Everyone is welcome. This is only one way that the Lions raise funds for local community projects.

On Saturday, Oct. 27, from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Brownies, Guides and Pathfinders are holding a Bottle Drive.

They will be going door-to-door in Port McNicoll, Triple Bay Road and Paradise Point.

So start gathering up your bottles for these enthusiastic youngsters (and their patient parents).

Just a reminder: On Oct. 27 Halloween Dance at the Community Centre, Halloween Dance at the Legion, Christmas Bazaar, Bonar Presbyterian Church.

Guineas

Ten 4H Beer Club members will represent North Simcoe in the Queen's Guineas competition on Nov. 16 at the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair. Members with steers weighing off with the highest gains were Frank Robbins of Coldwater (3.3 pounds per day with his Limousin steer) and Mary Martin of Elmvale with her Angus crossbred steer (3.12 pounds per day) over a 153 day test period. Sharon Bell will represent North Simcoe in the showmanship competition against other counties. She was North Simcoe's top beef showman at the Barrie Junior Fair. The other members representing North Simcoe are Joan Anderson of Orillia, John Armstrong of Elmvale, Joan Dunsmore of Shanty Bay, Michael Jones of Midland, David Key of Shanty Bay, John McNivan of Oro Station, Anne Richardson of Orillia, and Jean Robertson of Elmvale. All steers are sold by auction after the show. This is a good chance to support the 4H program and to put North Simcoe beef in your freezer.
