On behalf of the Library Staff I wish to thank our Patrons for their co-operation during our annual survey that took place in the Library during the week of Oct. 17.

Your patience was commendable as we were compiling the government statistics. These surveys are compulsory at that (a) the Georgian Library System can evaluate their services, and (b) that the Government will continue to provide funds.

How about buying your Stocking Stuffers at the Library. We have paperbacks (Harlequin, etc) on sale for five cents each.

Come and gettem!

Richmond Hill. There are a lot of changes taking place within the Public Library Systems.

New forms are coming in, and Inter-Library Loans have become computerized.

Our Library will be affected by these changes even though we are Off-Line - meaning we are non-computerized. Will keep you posted.

Mary and Steve Rothwell hosted a wedding reception at their home for Mary's sister - Jennifer Hogan - and her new spouse Gerhard Brosch of Revelstoke, B.C. Parents and friends flew in for the wedding which took place at St. Margaret's Roman Catholic Church in Midland.

The reeve and councillors hosted an appreciation dinner Nov. 2 for all the members of the committee that worked hard to make our Bicentennial Celebration weekend so great.

The people included representatives from the Legion, Metc, Lions, P.U.C., School, Churches, and individuals from Port McNicoll who collaborated so well together - and achieved such a successful celebration.

During the evening there was some discussion about recalling the Committee yearly in conjunction with the Lion's Club Carnival. So watch for more news on this topic.

David Robertson and his wife were at the appreciation dinner as well.

Dave will be receiving a Bicentennial Medal shortly in appreciation of his community involvement, especially Scouts, Church, Parks and Recreation, and much more.

Victoria Harbour News Bev and Mike McCluskey hosted a Hallo'we'en Party at their home for 43 kids.

It started with a hay ride that left from St. John's United Church with all the Sunday School kids, teachers and friends - costumed for the event. Apparently they all had a terrific time. The Lion's Club's Charter Night Dance was well attended.

D.J. Todd Smitten played a great selection of discs for dancing including requests.

Tom Chapman won a prize - a hat - and he wore it all evening. Anne Connelly won a door prize. Catering of the excellent dinner was done by the Legion Ladies Auxiliary.

The guest of honour - Fred Box, District Governor of the Lions - spoke on Lionism. Reeve Juneau had some encouraging words to say.

Tom Savage of Port McNicoll asked me to print a retraction. My sincere apologies. I meant to say Mr. Ted Savage, a member of a concerned citizens group, placed some queries before Council at their last meeting.

Members of the Choir from St. John's United Church threw a surprise - welcome party for Barbara and Lawrence Barr at the Harbour Diner on Saturday night. Barbara sings up a storm along with the rest of the choir.
