

Sports Report

Penetang Curling Club has action packed week

by
RON BELLISLE
This past week has seen some closer competition in all leagues.
On Monday night, in the ladies section on ice 2, it was Rosemary Marchand's team defeating Rita Pudicombe's four some by a close 9-7 score.
On Ice 3, it was Diane Ruston's rink edging out Annette St. Amant's team by a close 6-5 score.

The Ruston rink is made up of Diane as skip, Iris Cinq-Mars as vice, Helen Dubeau second and Linda Dorion lead.
On Ice 4, Joan Gregoire got by Marita King by 7-5.
Ice 5 saw another close game with Annette Merkley's team defeating Joan Maurice by another 6-5 score.

After two weeks of play, Diane Ruston's rink leads the league in points with 30 points.
Scoring in this league is done by getting 10 points for a win, one point per end taken and half a point for a dead end.
In the men's Tuesday night draws on Ice 2, it was Maurice Brunelle's rink overpowering Gerry Lights team by a score of 14-2.

On Ice 3, it was again a high scoring affair with Connie Maurice taking a convincing 15-1 win over John Moreau.
On Ice 4, Rick Mailloux's team defeated Maurice Bellisle by a 10-4 score.
In this league after two weeks of play it's Connie Maurice leading with 31½ points and Maurice Brunelle's team only 1½ points behind.

In the Wednesday night Industrial league the A team, skipped by Ron Asselin, defeated the Port Teachers by a 14-6 score.
On Ice 2, it was the Trouble Shooters over the West End Boys skipped by Jerry Ladouceur by a 11-4 score.
Ice 3 saw the Cosmo's, skipped by Brian Brooks, defeat the Eight Enders by a 11-5 score.
On Ice 4, it was the Plumber's Helpers over Beaver Lumber by a 10-4 score.
Ice 5 saw the Legion Lassie's go down to defeat by a 9-3 score at the hands of the B room Busters.

The final game was a close game with the Reverso's, skipped by Gilles Cinq-Mars edging out the Lion's Club 6-5 by having to play an extra end to decide the winner.
In Thursday night Men's competitive we again have no scores to mention, only the winners by the number of ends taken.
In the A Division it was Maurice Brunelle defeating Marty St. Amants's team taking 6 out of the 10 ends played.
Jake Reimer was successful in defeating Al McClinton by taking 5 ends with a blank end recorded.
The Desrochers rink defeated the Moreau rink by taking 7 ends out of a possible 10 ends.
After two weeks of play, the Desrochers rink leads the pack by 32½ points.

seventh end.
On Ice 3, it was an easy win for Larry Merkley's team defeating Rick Desjardins team by a 12-4 score.
On Ice 4, it was Al McClinton's team doubling the score 6-3 over Rick Moreau's foursome.

Labatt's Curling League sees seven matches played

A total of seven matches were played in the Labatt's Major Curling League on Tuesday, Nov. 13.
In the first match, Brock Stackhouse of Barrie was downed by Bruce Culver of Orillia by a score of 7-6.
The second saw Bill Dorsey's rink of Cookstown edge Bob Johnson's rink, also from Cookstown, 6-5.
In the third, Gary Morgan's rink of Barrie took Gary Smockum's rink, also from Barrie by a 6-4 margin.
Forbes Cavanaugh's rink from Stroud defeated Art Storey's rink 9-7, while Bob McGregor's rink from Collingwood lost 3-7 to Warren Wallace's rink from Barrie.
In the sixth match, Bob Denny's rink from Barrie handily defeated John Owen's rink from Cookstown 9-2.
In the final game of the evening, Rob Barstevich's rink from Barrie managed to squeeze by Bob Ruston's Penetang IGA rink by a close 6-5 score.

Ringette practice

Ringette player Tracy Wolfenden misses on this attempt at the net during a practice last Saturday in Elmvale. The girls, who range in age from six to 13, practice or play an exhibition game every Saturday from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. Next weekend they travel to Stayner for a tournament. To join the team telephone Allan Lambie (322-1295), Pat Haines (322-1425) or Denise Ritchie (322-2605).
Photo by Katy Austin

SportStats

TEAM AND INDIVIDUAL STANDINGS MIDLAND INDUSTRIAL BOWLING

EAST
TEAM	W	L	PTS
Commodore Hotle	27	6	62
Garners Sports	22	11	47
Bandana Const	22	11	47
Allied Fire Safety	15	18	35
Ladouceurs Const	12	21	27
Gamna Signs	12	21	27

WEST
TEAM	W	L	PTS
R.D. Ivens Windows	21	12	48
Brabant Const	18	15	42
G. Wilicers	15	19	35
Huron Auto Glass	13	20	29
Don Sherck Const	11	22	24
Olympia Sport	10	23	22

TOP 10 AVERAGES

Maurice Lacroix	249
Phil Southon	238
Howard Woolner	233
Jules Marion	233
Dave Laurin	229
Ron Gregoire	227
J.P. Desroches	224
Don Spring	224
Rodney Todd	223
Leo St. Onge	223

TRIPLES

Ray Staunton	863
Charlie Spiker	861
J.P. Desroches	856
Paul Butineau	837
Phil Southon	834
Howard Woolner	801
Bob Duquette	793
Don Spring	781
Maurice Lacroix	765
Bob McMann	752

ALLIED FIRE SAFETY HIGH SINGLE AWARD
Paul Butineau 384

SCOREBOARD

GEORGIAN BAY LEAGUE
Nov. 16 Atoms Elmvale 5, Midland 0.
Nov. 16 Peewee Elmvale 4, Midland 5.
Nov. 16 Bantam Elmvale 5, Wasaga Beach 5.

NORTH SIMCOE LEAGUE
Nov. 3 Bantam Elmvale 3, Coldwater 4.
Nov. 11 Bantam Elmvale 4, Penetang 0.
Nov. 17 Novice Sporting Goods 6, Coldwater 1.
Nov. 17 Atom Hawks 3, Coldwater 4.
Nov. 17 Peewee Cash & Carry 4, Penetang 4.
Nov. 17 Bantam Elmvale 1, Oro 1.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK - Tim Campbell, Peewee Cash & Carry North Simcoe League.
SPONSOR OF THE WEEK - Elmvale Lions Club, Sponsors of Georgian Bay Novice.
FUTURE GAMES - GEORGIAN BAY LEAGUE
Nov. 23 Atom Penetang at Elmvale, 7 p.m.; Peewee Bordon at Elmvale, 8:15 p.m.; Bantam Stayner at Elmvale, 9:30 p.m.
Nov. 25 Midget Stayner at Elmvale, 6 p.m.
(Come out and support minor hockey)

Centennials and Kings game ends in 5-5 tie

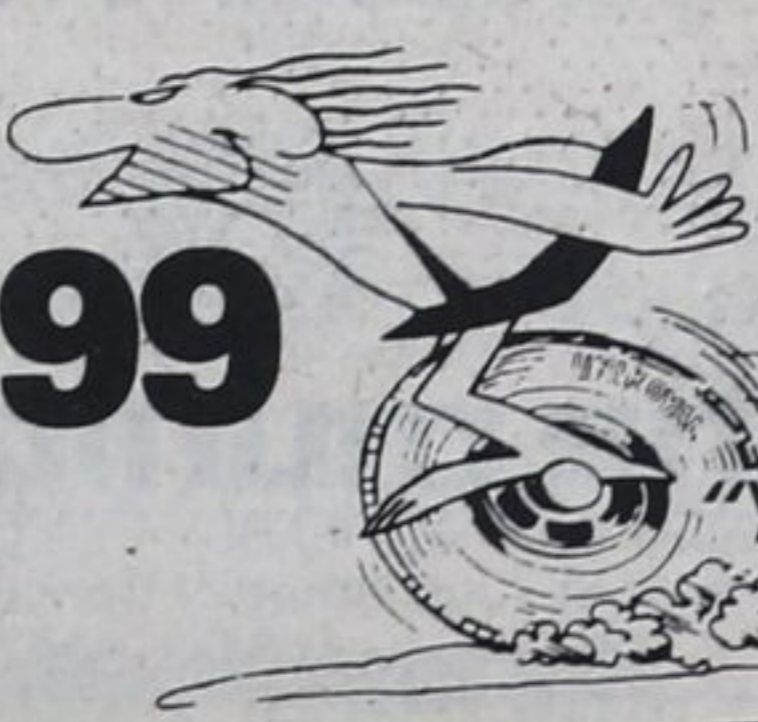

Midland Stoneleigh Centennials were in Penetang Friday night to meet their traditional rivals, the Kings.
Both Kings and Cents have been splitting their games since the beginning of the season and Friday's game was no exception. The game ended in a 5-5 tie.
Penetang led 4-1 at one point in the game, but after the second the score closed to 4-3.
Penetang then led 5-3 before Cents closed out the scoring with the final two goals of the game producing the tie.

Each team had six players missing from their lineup.
Scoring for Midland were Dan Whitton and Daryl Belcourt, each with a pair. The single went to John Walter.
Ken Graham got the hat-trick for Penetang, while Garry Lynch and Terry Beausoleil had singles.
Peter Newburn for Midland and Ray Hook for Penetang played excellent between the pipes.
The two teams meet again in Midland this Friday night at 8:30 p.m.

GET THE JUMP ON OLE' MAN WINTER!..

•SNOW TIRES $14.99
INSTALLED & BALANCED ONLY

Drive in today to...
ADCO TIRE LIMITED

"Your Complete Automotive Service Centre"
655 Vindin St., Phone 526-2213