

Obituaries

Moise Lesperance

The late Moise Lesperance of Perkinsfield died Nov. 16, 1984, in Penetanguishene General Hospital, following a brief illness. He was 95 years of age. Mr. Lesperance was a life-long resident of Perkinsfield, the oldest parishioner of St. Patrick's Church, Perkinsfield, and was so honoured by the parish during the parade held this past summer in celebration of the centennial of St. Patrick's Church.

His funeral mass was held in St. Patrick's Church, Perkinsfield, on Nov. 19, with Rev. V. Laurin as the officiating clergy. Spring interment will be in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Perkinsfield.

His pallbearers were his grandsons Armand and Allan Lesperance, Martin Grozelle, Neil Mailloux, Roland Marion and Wilfred Lafreniere.

Surviving him are his wife Mrs. Odianna (Tessier) Lesperance of Perkinsfield, his sons Hilaire, Omer, Alcime and Edmund, all of Perkinsfield and Herman of Penetanguishene, his daughters Mrs. Claudia Lafrenier of Thunder Bay Beach, Mrs. Rosina Grozelle of Highland Point, Mrs. Cecile Marion of Wyebridge, Mrs. Clothilde Mailloux of Northwest Basin, his brother Albert of Perkinsfield and his sister Mrs. Estelle Paule of Penetanguishene.

Moise Lesperance was predeceased by his parents Moise Lesperance Sr. and Delia Roi, by his brothers George, Felix, Laurent and Alfred, and by his sisters Mrs. Marie Paule, Mrs. Helene Dubeau and Mrs. Anna Dubeau.

He is survived by 62 grandchildren, 51 great-grandchildren, and three great great grandchildren.

Leo 'Lefty' St. Amant

The late Leo (Lefty) St. Amant of Fox Street, Penetanguishene, died suddenly on Nov. 17, 1984, in Penetanguishene General Hospital, at the age of 57 years.

Mr. St. Amant was born in and lived all of his life in Penetanguishene.

He was employed for many years in automobile sales, first with the defunct Gropp

Motors of Penetanguishene and more lately with Stoneleigh Motors of Midland.

His funeral mass was held in St. Ann's Memorial Church, Penetanguishene, on Nov. 19 with Rev. L. Dignard as the officiating clergy. Spring interment will be in St. Ann's Cemetery, Penetanguishene.

His pallbearers were his nephews John

Juneau, Paul Maheu, Brian Forget, Allan and Micheal St. Amant and Frank Forget.

Surviving him are his wife Mrs. Helen (Forget) St. Amant of Penetanguishene, his sons Bob and Wayne St.

Amant of Penetanguishene, his daughters Yvonne (Mrs. Micheal Parent), Elaine (Mrs. Stephen Phillips), Karen (Mrs. Andrew Lizotte) all of Penetanguishene, his brother Jerome of Trenton, and his sister Elva St. Amant of Penetanguishene.

He was predeceased by his brother Paul St. Amant.

Leo St. Amant is survived by five grandchildren.

Neil McArthur

The death occurred in Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto, on Nov. 15, 1984, of Edwards Mobile Estates, Midland Point, resident Neil Hector McArthur. Mr. McArthur was 66 years of age.

The native of

Midland, son of Joseph McArthur and Margaret Voll, married Doris Margaret Hewson in Midland on June 15, 1940. His wife survives him, as do his daughters Margot McArthur and Linda Wheeler, both of

Midland, and his sister Joan (Mrs. Tim Nesbitt) of Midland. Mr. McArthur had six grandchildren and one great grandchild. His parents and his brother Hugh predeceased him.

Rev. Al Farthing

officiated at the funeral service held in Nicholls Funeral Home on Nov. 17. Cremation, interment of ashes in Lakeview Cemetery.

William Harrison

William Harrison of Everton Drive, Sunnyside, died Nov. 10, 1984, in Huronia District Hospital, Midland, following a lengthy illness. He was 67 years of age.

Mr. Harrison was born in the Gaspé area of Quebec, grew up in Cowansville, Quebec, and lived most of his adult life in the Midland area.

He was the owner of the now defunct Harrison Metal Works, formerly located on Vindin Street, which manufactured aluminum windows and doors and iron railings.

Mr. Harrison was a member of the Knights of Columbus, Laurier Council No. 2004, Midland, and was also a member of the Georgian Bay Hunters and Anglers Club and of the Champlain Senior Citizen's Club.

His funeral mass was held in St. Margaret's Church, Midland, on Nov. 13, with Rev. S. Somerville as the officiating clergy. Interment was in St. Margaret's Cemetery, Midland. His pallbearers were his grandsons Ken and Allan King, and his sons-in-law Andrew Giesbrecht, Tom Bullock, Ken Quesnelle and Al Playne.

Surviving his are his wife Mrs. Edna Harrison of Sunnyside, his son Robert of Calgary, his daughters Yvette King, Michelle Harrison and Linda Quesnelle, all of Midland, Anita Rourke of the Northwest Territories, Carolyn Giesbrecht of Surrey, B.C., and Sharlene Bullock of Penetanguishene, and his sisters Marie-Ange Harrison and Rose-Aimee Hebert, of Cowansville, Que.

He was predeceased by his sisters Marie-Anne Vachon and Soeur Alice Harrison.

He is survived by seven grandchildren.

Dec. 1
Mount St. Louis Christmas bazaar and bake sale from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Parish hall, corner of Concession 4 of Medonte and Mount St. Louis Road. Many handmade crafts and Christmas items, homemade baking.
Maple Valley Club dance to band Baton Rouge, starting a 9 p.m.

Dec. 4
Georgian College information sessions on free academic upgrading at the Midland Civic Centre Dec. 4, Dec. 6, Dec. 11 and Dec. 13, 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Also in Midland Public Library Dec. 4 and Dec. 6, 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. For more information, contact Isobel Ball (526-8035) or Georgian College (325-2705, ext. 270).

Dec. 1
Royal Canadian Legion Branch 68, Penetanguishene, will hold a general meeting at 8 p.m. All ordinary and associate members are requested to attend.
Dec. 13
First Elmvalle Beagers, Cubs and Scoute will be selling Christmas trees starting Dec. 3 at the side of Elmvalle Farm Supply. Please check the notice posted for time and days of sales.

This Week in Canada
On Nov. 29, in 1773, British citizens at Quebec petitioned for an Assembly, and in 1798, the Provincial Legislature of the Island of St. John changed the name to Prince Edward Island.

DON'T MISS IT

SANTA INVITES ALL YOU BOYS & GIRLS

TO THE TIN CAN SHOW
Dec. 1st
Two Showings
9:30 a.m. & 11 a.m.
AT THE
ROXY TWIN THEATRE
King St., Midland

Feature Film "SANTA CLAUS"

Admission: 1 tin of food
Proceeds to The Salvation Army
Sponsored by the Roxy Twin Theatre & Midland Times

PEOPLES

ONE DAY ONLY
Friday, Nov. 30,
9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

EVERYTHING
IN THE STORE

20% OFF

'Santa Knows Where to Shop'

King St., Midland Town Centre
Your Downtown Department Store

Mon.-Thurs 9:530; Fri 9:9; Sat 9:530
or convenient Lay-away

