

Midland Oldtimers Over 35's capture 'C' crown

Midland Oldtimers Over 35 Team travelled to Coldwater this past weekend to participate in the Third Annual Coldwater Creeks Oldtimers Hockey Tournament.

As a result of playing four games, the team was victorious in winning the 'C' Division Championship.

Friday night, Midland lost their first game by a 4-3 margin against Moonstone Oldtimers.

Scoring unassisted goals in that game were Fred Flood and John Webber. The third goal of the game was scored once again by Fred Flood and assisted by Terry Knight and Bob Monteith.

In the second game of the tournament, held Saturday afternoon, Midland Oldtimers met the Atherley Arms Oldtimers with Midland emerging on the victorious end with a 6-2 score.

Brian Caley played all four games in goal and posted the first team shut-out in recent living memory.

Rick Leaney skated with the team in the first three games and assisted on the bench along with the other support staff including Ken Cave, Ron Dalziel and Murray Yorke.

Bryan MacKell coached the team during all four games. The team trophy and medals were accepted by the Assistant Captain Brain Marchall.

As this was the first tournament that the Midland Over 35 Oldtimers had ever won and recognizing it included a first ever shut out game, a great party concluded the weekend. And why not?!

CCGS Griffon will be cutting through ice

The Canadian Coast Guard icebreaker Griffon will be active on Georgian Bay this Friday, and again Tuesday or Wednesday. The vessel is scheduled to leave Midland Town Dock about 8 a.m. Friday when she will steam to Port McNicoll, returning the same day around noon. It is necessary for the big red hulled ship to free a freighter moored there, before the cargo can be unloaded. The same operation is likely to be repeated early next week.

To confirm the schedule of the icebreaker Griffon, 2nd

Officer Richard Landry suggests checking with the local media, who are kept informed by the Coast Guard radio base in Wiarton. An alternative is to phone Ice Officer Ray Charrier, at the Canadian Coast Guard Ice Office in Toronto, at (416) 369-3918 Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The other Coast Guard vessel at the town dock, the ice strengthened buoy tender Monmorency, will remain tied in her berth for the winter while undergoing a refit.

leaving Midland harbour at 8 a.m. this coming Fri.

Heart month Not the same after attack

Midland's mayor was hospitalized by a heart attack in November of 1983.

Last year he was the honorary chairman of the local Heart and Stroke Foundation branch fund raising campaign.

Allan Roach says he is still not as fit as he believes himself to be. His mental assessment of his fitness is not matched by reality.

Soon after his release from hospital Roach began a regimen of a daily walk of two kilometres, which he has kept without fail. He no longer eats margarine, sugar or butter. His response to advice to stop smoking is to smoke 10 cigarettes a day rather than the contents of two or more large packages of cigarettes.

"Blow off steam. Get it out of your system," is his advice. Mental tension is a factor in heart problems, he says. "Go for a walk and think about" the problem.

Roach did not realize he had a heart condition until his attack. Since that attack his weight has dropped to 180 pounds from 220 pounds. He would like to lose 20 more pounds, and could lose 30 pounds according to his medical advice.

"I still have problems. I get tired. I have to learn not to shovel snow," he said this week. February is Heart and Stroke Foundation Month in Midland.
