

Police Beat

Assault peace officer charge laid

Last Thursday, at about 1:15 a.m., Midland OPP attended at the Brule Hotel after receiving a complaint concerning a rowdy patron.

Prior to leaving the disturbance, OPP Const. Debra Heaton had a police cruiser door closed on her fingers.

David Mathew Genier (20 yrs.) of Con. 17, Tiny Twp. was charged with assault peace officer.

He is scheduled to appear in Penetang Provincial Court on Thursday Sept. 26. Meanwhile, on Friday, a break-in occurred at the Kenneth Bowering residence in Wyebridge.

Only property taken appeared to be a part bottle of whiskey and five dollars in cash.

Mark Kirkup (30 yrs) of Manly Street, Midland, was later arrested by Midland town police.

He was subsequently charged with break and enter and is scheduled to appear in Midland court on Oct. 30.

Helping others locally with CNIB

Local CNIB fundraisers hope to collect enough donations, during next month's annual campaign, to match the $19,000 spent locally every year by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

The professional services of CNIB workers who can help victims and families adjust after an industrial accident for example, and a specialist trained to work with visually impaired children, were made possible from donations during the previous campaigns.

Huron District Campaign Chairman Dean Nicholls remembers when a "talking-book" was as large and cumbersome as a sewing machine. Nowadays he says, CNIB donations are helping handicapped people achieve their independence by financing the purchase of sophisticated, portable, micro-chip machines the size of a paper-back book.

Early in October, most households in Midland, Penetanguishene, Coldwater, Elmvale, Port McNicoll, Victoria Harbour, Waubaushene, and Tiny Township will receive preaddressed CNIB envelopes. These convenient envelopes with a donation inside can then be mailed, or dropped off at any local branch of the Toronto Dominion bank.

Fatal car crash

Christian Is. man, 22, killed

A fatal car crash on Christian Island, Saturday morning, has taken the life of Island resident Kerry Monague, 22.

According to Midland OPP, 30-year-old Lila King was driving a westbound car on Ogema Road when it reportedly went out of control.

The car then entered a ditch and flipped over on its roof coming to rest in the eastbound lane.

Edwin Sandy, 29, a passenger in the car suffered minor injuries while Monague, the other passenger, was later pronounced dead at Penetanguishene General Hospital.

All parties were from Christian Island. Investigation into this tragic mishap which reportedly occurred at 7 a.m. is still under investigation.

Water had to go somewhere

How wet was it after the Sept. 5 deluge? Just north of Elmvale the next day water flooding from the Wye River turned a cattle loading pen beside Highway 27 into a fenced pond.
