

St. T's v-ballers take Zone II

St. Theresa's Crusaders won the Zone II boys' AA Volleyball Championships in a round robin tournament at Park Street Collegiate last Thursday.

In their first matchup, Crusaders took both games from Park Street, 15-4, 15-9. Next to fall to St. T's was O.D.C.V.I. The Crusaders emerged victorious again in straight games 15-12, 15-8.

The mighty MSS Marauders quickly cooled St. T's, heels as they took their Midland counterparts 15-7 and 15-3. This MSS victory set the stage for a final showdown between these two perennial rivals for the Championship.

Nobody was cheated for entertainment in this matchup, as Crusaders put everything together to take both games 16-14 and 15-11 in a very exciting and dramatic finish.

The Senior Crusaders were carried to victory through an excellent team effort. John Bold and Keith Proulx kept the MSS defense off balance as they divided the St. Theresa's attack.

By spreading the attack out along the length of the net and mixing it up with quick attacks up the middle the MSS blocks were often late and ineffective. Rob Weber and Kevin Belcourt provided the team with strong middle blocking and were a strong force in shutting down the MSS attack.

Excellent passing and digging in the back court by Pat Marchand and Mike McKeown kept many rallies alive and while the MSS team had a very big height advantage, the Crusaders compensated with their hustle and drive constantly digging up the MSS attacks and counter attacking using their quickness to wear down the bigger MSS team.

Coaches Rick Pressi and Peter Balcom, made a number of adjustments the past week that helped to turn the tide. Throughout the season, MSS has consistently been able to win their matches with the Crusaders.

Coach Balcom moved Rob Weber into the middle blocking role the past weekend at the Eastview tournament. This proved very valuable as Rob's aggressive blocking was a vital ingredient in the victory.

The team's new offensive system where they were able to confuse the blocking by disguising the position of the setter, provided the Crusaders with key points during the match.

The quiet confidence and determined manner in which the team approached the play off combined with the excellent team work and effort was well rewarded with a hard earned ZONE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Mariners. Couling picked up three assists as did Mason.

The Penetanguishene Central Marine Atoms' next scheduled game is set for Sunday, November 10 at the Penetanguishene Community Arena when they play host to the Alliston Major Atoms with the starting time being 4:20 p.m.

Malibus sweep a pair

Midland Commodore Malibus Women's volleyball team recently faced Orangeville and CFB Borden in League action. First game of the night was superb as movement on the court flowed and the team completely dominated Orangeville in all aspects of the game winning 15-2. Orangeville fought back in the second game of the match, but fell short, losing to the Malibus 15-13. In the second matchup of the evening, Midland took Borden in the first game with relative ease 15-6, but dropped game two, 10-

15. Midland rebounded in the third game to eke out a close 15-12 win.

Malibus were led by the strong serving of Sue Presse and Faye Lafreniere, along with middle hitting by Viki Courtmarche and Chris McCullough. The team has lost the

Central Marine Atoms in 8-2 win

by BERT MASON

Sunday the Penetanguishene Central Marine Major Atoms travelled to Owen Sound to play their fourth league game of the young hockey season. The Mariners were up for this game as they knew that their only league loss last year came at the hands of Owen Sound.

The home team struck for the first goal at the 8:54 mark to take an early 1-0 lead that stood up for only two minutes before Penetang's Tim Mason scored to tie the game. Peter Cruise picked up the assist on Mason's goal. With less than a minute to play, Billy Leonard put Central Marine ahead with a pretty goal set up by his centremen, Tim Mason. Peter Couling drew the second assist on Leonard's goal. The game tightened up for a short time before Shawn McConkey made a fine rush and fired a blistering wrist shot high to the corner of the net to raise the score 3-1. Kirk Ruston was credited with this assist.

From this point on in the game it was all Penetang as they scored seven unanswered goals before Owen Sound scored their second of the game. Super goal-tending from both Scott Galt and Mike Marchildon kept the home team off the score board even though they out-shot the Mariners by a 27-24 margin.

Central Marine's fourth goal was scored by Tim Mason as he was set up by Billy Leonard and Peter Couling. The second period ended with Penetang leading by 4-1. The third period began with closer checking, but by 11:36, Dwayne Johnson scored a pretty goal on some fine passing from the corner from both Mason and Leonard. At the 8:40 mark, Scott Cummings scored as he was fed a beautiful pass by his centreman Norman Robitaille. Central Marine's sixth goal was scored by Chris Brooks as he was set up on a smooth passing play by Mason who appeared to be everywhere during the game. With the score now 7-1, the host team managed to score its second goal on a goal-mouth scramble. Central Marine answered with a goal of their own within a few minutes as Tim Mason completed his hat-trick on a nifty move behind the Owen Sound net that caught the goalie and his defencemen cat-knapping. The assist on Mason's goal went to Shawn McConkey, who along with fellow defenceman Peter Couling, played a strong game for the
