New programs at your YMCA

by VALORIE BRUCKER

Brian Seaborn, program and physical director of Midland YMCA has a number of new programs in the works.

A handball clinic is scheduled for Nov. 7. Instructors include Warren Haller and John Philips the Ontario Singles Champion and the 1981 Canadian Champion.

The clinic is scheduled from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and includes an in-class seminar and demonstration match by the professionals.

Pre-registration is a must before Nov. 5. Fee is $5.

A fitness testing clinic is scheduled for Nov. 23 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Testing will take approximately 45 minutes. Three months later participants will be retested and given a progress report and an established program.

Fee for members is $20. For non-members it's $40.

"Over-Weight and Over 40" fitness program is offered for men every Wednesday and Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 8 a.m.

An introductory computer course and a Commodore in home program is scheduled for the second week of November. Fee structure has not yet been determined.

Program still under planning include's a women's program...issues of interest would be discussing such as childproofing, legal rights, pornography and investments.

New service available

Bell subscribers in the Christian Island telephone exchange will soon be able to take advantage of a new long distance calling option that provides a one-third discount off all calls placed to the Midland telephone exchange.

The service, called SELECTEL (formerly called Optional Calling Plan), was approved on May 24 by the Canadian Radio-television and Tele-communications Commission (CRTC).

For a monthly fee of $2.30, SELECTEL residence subscribers in Christian Island are entitled to a one-third discount on all customer-dialed calls placed to Midland without operator assistance. This discount applies in addition to existing evening and weekend discounts.
