

Exemplary service recognized

Midland Police Department Sergeant Marcel Dorion was one of three department members to receive a medal during the Christmas party for Midland town employees, held last Friday. Constables Murray Tamblyn and Jack Charlebois also received a Police Exemplary Medal. Above, Mayor Al Roach pins Sgt. Dorion's medal to his lapel.

Police officers receive Police Exemplary Medal

Sergeant Marcel Dorion, Constable Murray Tamblyn, and Constable Jack Charlebois each received a Police Exemplary Medal from Midland's mayor during the town's annual municipal Christmas party.

Sgt. Dorion has been with the town's police force for 17 years. Previously he spent 13 years on the Penetanguishene Police Force.

Constable Tamblyn has been on the town police force for 16 years. Previously he was a member of the Ontario Provincial Police, for 17 years.

Const. Charlebois has been on the town police force for 12 years, coming to Midland after six years with the OPP, and two years on the Metro Toronto Police Force.

Midland's volunteer firefighters were also recognized.

The municipal Christmas party is held for town employees, and members of the town's boards and committees.
