Walker's Electric scored four straight goals and sat back as Wye Heritage Marina tallied three times, but it wasn't enough as Walker's escaped with a 4-3 victory in Midland Minor Hockey Bantam action.

David Duval registered a hat trick for Walker's with Shawn Mason adding a singleton. Greg Hawke scored twice for Wye Heritage and Robert Wilkes once.

Free Press came from behind to defeat Smith Mobile Homes 4-2. Joel Heins opened the scoring in the first period for Free Press but Smith's drew even a minute and three seconds later when Glen Weatherell fired the equalizer. Mike Shaw gave Smith's the lead briefly in the second, but John O'Rourke notched the tying marker to end the second frame. Heins and O'Rourke tallied third period markers for the Free Press victory.

In North Simcoe Peeewe House League play, John's Catering nipped Midland Police by a 3-1 count. First period goals by Dave Cooper and Robbie Gruber supplied the margin of victory for John's. Scott Cooper added a third period insurance marker.
