

Wright's five points leads Garms

Top Hat Amusements surprised Performance Motor Sports 5-0 in Midland Recreational Hockey League play. Paul Hahn notched the only marker of the first period while Terry Archer and Brad Copeland tallied in the second. Jim Monteith and Randy Butineau completed the scoring in the third stanza.

Olympia Sports and Hebners Taxi fought to a 4-4 draw. John Wright broke through Hebner's defence for the game's first marker at 11:15 of the first frame assisted by George Weatherell. Mike Brooks tied the score at 7:27 for Hebner's before Weatherell regained the lead for Olympia. Dave Hebner ended the scoring in the first period with a tally at 2:09, from Brendan Crowley and Mike Abram.

Rick Lefave regained the lead for Olympia with the only marker of the second period when he slipped the puck past Brian Caley in Hebner's net, with help from Ken Davidson. Crowley knotted the score at

by BERT MASON

In their final meeting of the regular Georgian Bay Minor Hockey Association league play, Penetanguishene Central Marine Major Atoms lost a hard-fought contest to Midland French Dry Cleaners Major Atoms by a 2-1 score Saturday.

Central Marine's final home game of the regular season is set for this coming Sunday when they host Parry Sound with a face-off time of 3 p.m.

three apiece, with a marker at 18:18 of the third stanza before Olympia came back with John Wright's second counter of the contest from Weatherell. However, Hebner's had the last say in this see-saw battle, as Dave Hamelin struck for his second of the night at the 15:53 mark, assisted by Crowley, to gain the tie for Hebner's.

Lavin's Electric lost more ground in the battle for first place, as they dropped a 4-1 decision to last place

Cedarview Hawks. Jeff Wright notched a marker at 5:40 of the first frame with help from Les Dawe before Dawe came back with his own tally at 3:58 unassisted.

After a scoreless second stanza, Cedarview struck again to make the score 3-0 in their favor as Randy Simpall found the mark from Wright and Mike Duval. Joe Gagnon made no mistake as he fired one past Lavin's netminder, assisted by Brian Garner, before Dave Parent ruined the shutout for Cedarview.

Garms Muffler World increased their first place lead with a 6-2 win over Barrelworks Blues. Paul Robillard staked Barrelworks to their only lead of the contest when he notched a marker at 12:15 of the first, but Chris Wright answered that one for Garms at 6:22. Wright scored again, at 14:10 of the second period, while Jules Duquette increased Garms' lead to 3-1 with a marker at 10:46 assisted by Chris and Jim Wright. Barrelworks drew to within one as Glen Hurlehy converted a Paul Robillard pass for the second Muffler World marker. Bill Beauchamp also assisted on the play. Before the period ended, Carl Cowan gave Garms a 4-2 lead on a play with Chris Wright and Bruce Guthrie. Gerard LaChapelle struck for a pair of third period markers to up the count to 6-2 in favor of Garms.
