Who will be this year's Winterama Queen?

Here are the 17 beautiful young ladies who will be vying for the coveted title of the 1986 Penetanguishene Winterama Queen when the lights go up at Pen Theatre, Valentine's night.

This year's contest which will kick off the weekend long festivities is turning into one of the most extravagant contests this area has seen in years.

When one of these lucky young women is crowned this year's Queen, by the 1985 Winterama Queen Janet Parent, she will receive $500 cash, a bus trip for two to Toronto which includes a night's accommodations, a souvenir charm of the contest along with a number of other prizes.

Although contest organizer Jeanette Tracey, who has been knocking on doors collecting sponsors and prizes for the contestants since the first plans for Winterama were made way back in October, has been able to get support from local businesses entrants for the contest were first slow in coming.

After visiting local high schools and even going as far as stopping girls on the street, Tracey found these 17 ladies to throw their names in the ring for the Winterama Queen.

Although contest night is still three weeks away, the girls have been busy preparing for the evening with rehearsals and even a visit to Vincent's Hair Design in Penetang on Sunday morning for a makeup, hairstyling and photography session.

Although not all the judges for the evening are known it has been confirmed, the MC for the evening will be actor Michael Duhig who portrayed Ernest on the CTV series Swiss Family Robinson.

The contest will begin at 9:15 p.m. on Feb. 14.
