

Get out of my way, I was here first

The referee gives a watchful eye as Midland Centennial goaltender, Chris Lemieux moves out to dislodge a Huntsville forward from his position. Defenceman, Rob Fortin (14) prepares to block the expected shot from the blueline, as Guy Jeannotte (18) moves in to intercept.

Centennials win 10th consecutive playoff game

Midland Stoneleigh Centennials won their 10th consecutive playoff contest, Friday night, in Huntsville by dumping their hosts 10-4 in game two of a best-of-seven final series for the Georgian Bay Junior C Hockey Championship.

Shawn Davy wasted no time in giving Midland the lead after he found the mark less than a minute and a half into the first period, with assists from to Carl Weber and Tommy Hook.

Mark Gieseler made the score 2-0 for Midland assisted by Dan Clement, but Dave Kennedy connected on a power play effort for Huntsville, 11 seconds later, at 8:36. Mike McNaull tied the score for Blair McCanns before teammate, Brady Maw, clicked on the power play at 13:13 to lead 3-2. However, Archie Meridis, on a play with Clement and Kevin Belcourt, knotted the game at 3-3 with 20 seconds left in the frame.

Second period goals by Carl Weber and Mark Gieseler, his second of the game, gave Cents a 5-3 lead before another power play goal by Huntsville's Rod McDonald narrowed the score. Pat Marchand fired one home late in the period for Midland to lead 6-4 after two periods.

The third period was all Midland as Archie Meridis connected with his second of the contest at 1:03, while Rob Fortin helped out Marlon Giseler midway in the frame. Carl Weber and Shawn Davy, each with their second of the game rounded out the scoring for the victorious Cents.

Huronian Optical and Therrien's lead semi-final series

In Penetang Recreational Hockey League playoff action, Huronia Optical slipped past G. Willicers by a 4-1 count. Gary Hansford fired a pair of markers for the victors with Gary Preston and Russ Coull adding singles. Jim Monteith recorded the sole tally for G. Willicers.

In the other semi-final fixture, Therrien's Furniture edged Hindson Marine 4-3. Roy Ferguson, Martin Quigley, John Maheu, and Ken Cowan potted single markers for Therrien's

ARNOLD BURGHER

Midland Stoneleigh Centennials took a 3-0 lead in their best of seven final series with Huntsville Blair McCanns at Centennial Arena Sunday night with a convincing 12-2 victory.

Pat Marchand, Carl Weber, and Marlon Giseler supplied Midland with a 3-0 lead in the first period before Huntsville managed to get on the board. Ron McDonald clicked on the power play at 14:57, but Kevin Belcourt erased that one, a minute and 21 seconds later, to take a 4-1 Midland lead to the dressing room.

Midland directed 18 shots at the Blair McCanns goaltenders in the second frame, and were successful on three of Tom Hook, Peter Wright, and Archie Meridis accounted for the scoring.

Five straight counters for Midland in the third off the sticks of Daryl Belcourt, Dan Clement, Kevin Belcourt, Tom Hook, and Dave Bressette put Midland up 12-1 before Nigel Babb doubled his team's output with a little trickler that eluded Chris Lemieux in the Centennial net at 18:15. Midland outshot Huntsville on the contest, 42-21.

Game four will go tomorrow night in Huntsville, starting at 9 p.m.

Marauders lose

Midland Secondary School Midget Marauders defeated Markham Marauders 63-52 in Georgian Bay Secondary School Association semi-final play at Innisdale (Barrie) on the weekend. Chuck Quesnelle hooped 18 points in leading MSS to the victory. Bill Mitchell tallied 17, while Scott Bales and Steve Kirdeikis netted 11 points each.

The victory pitted Midland Marauders against Collingwood Fighting Owls at Barrie Central for top honours. When the dust had settled, MSS lost a heartbreakers 50-49. Midland led by one with 30 seconds on the clock, but Collingwood edged ahead with strong work under the basket. With five seconds on the clock, MSS found themselves in control of the ball but could not find the basket as they fell to the Fighting Owls. Bill Mitchell was top Midland scorer with 17 points, while Chuck Quesnelle added 14 and Steve Kirdeikis 8.
