

Meatland's Third Annual Classic Half Marathon

Midland Meatland's Third Annual M.P.T.T. Classic half Marathon will be held on Sunday, April 27, beginning at 1 p.m. rain or shine. The course begins at the Midland YMCA along 21 kilometres (13.1 miles) of beautiful scenic roads through Midland, Tay, Penetang, and Tiny, returning to the Midland Y. The participants will be divided in two divisions; class - under 40 years of age, and masters, over 40. Each group will include male and female runners.

Advance entries are urged and each advance entrant will receive a package of "Catelli" spaghetti. However, entries will be accepted up to one hour before race time. There is no entry fee.

Dr. Josef Dolezel holds the record fastest time for the course, which was set last year at 1:23:25.

Each division winner will receive $50 worth of Sirloin steak, while the second and third place finishers will receive $25 and $10 worth of the delectable meat respectively, from Meatland. There is also a perpetual trophy commemorating this spring event. Also 50 entries will be drawn to receive a $10 voucher off on a dinner when dining with one or more persons courtesy of Leonard and Freda Grittani of Freda's.

Tom Borsa and John Gianetto have donated two half cases of the biggest, juiciest oranges in Midland to be awarded to the fourth place finisher in each division. Jerry Garms of Garms MufflerWorld has donated hats and T-shirts to be awarded by draw. Each runner will also receive one Big Mac courtesy of Jim Blackwell from McDonald's Restaurants. Don and Angela Foster will provide the fifth place winner in the class division with a one year membership at Mountainview Ski Hills.

According to Marathon organizer and sponsor, Paul Noack of Meatland, several runners have already signed up. One of which, is a new resident in Midland, Evan Cameron, who is currently the number one marathon runner in Scotland, a title he will hold until June of this year. Cameron is just 30 years old.

Spring is fire safety season

The bags and dried grass, leaves, old newspapers, and rubbish collected during Spring house and yard cleaning, may pose a serious fire hazard on your property.

Town of Midland Fire Chief Hal Belfry reminds everyone that two thirds of all fires occur in or around the home. "Make your home a safer place. Don't give fire a place to start,
