College programs explained

On March 18, approximately 30 community service representatives met in Georgian Manor to enjoy a luncheon and hear speakers from the three area Georgian College sponsored programs.

The first speaker, Isobel Ball, told us about the T.U.P. (Technical Upgrading Program) which was the first to be established in the area.

Helen Wheeler from the Futures program was the next speaker. Helen, also was instrumental in coordinating this presentation.

Bob Davy from the Job Finding Club was the last speaker and he told the group about this recently started program.

P.O.A. celebrates

The 10th anniversary of the beginning of the Canadian registry for Appaloosa coloured ponies in Canada known as the P.O.A. (Pony of the Americas) is being marked this year.

In the past 10 years people have enjoyed showing and breeding these spotted ponies which are bred for their beauty and working ability. The Association has developed futurity programs to intensify the overwhelming interest in the breeding and showing of these fine ponies. In addition to yearly halter futurities, the CPOA has developed the rich Western Pleasure Futurity for three-year-olds, making the showing of POAs not only good family fun but profitable as well.

The growth and interest in the POA breed has increased steadily during the past 10 years so that breeders and owners are having difficulty supplying the demand for ponies, even with the increasing number of breeders.
