

C.W.L. closed for summer

The Catholic Women's League of Port McNicoll closed for the summer with a banquet held at the Cricklewood Restaurant in Elmvale. There was an excellent turn out of members.

Pins were presented to Mrs. Zandbelt (President) and Mrs. Newton (Past President). Mrs. Newton entertained with her memories of the past as a member, and thanked her executive for their cooperation during the last two years.

Two delegates attended the National Convention in Toronto. Mrs. Kwast gave a brief report on the program.

The guest speaker was Fr. Farrell, Director of the Martyrs' Shrine. He gave a very informative talk on the Shrine's history. This year the Shrine is celebrating its 60th anniversary.

A few gifts were presented to members. This included a special memento for Monsignor Belanger and Agnes Belanger - a framed drawing of their home in Port McNicoll - as they are moving to Midland Bay Woods this month.

Fr. Schmid, the Catholic Women's League Director, closed the dinner with wishes for a happy, safe summer for all. See you in September.

There are some lovely "thank you" letters on display in the library. These letters were sent in appreciation of the great time these kids had when Tom Kubinek, entertainer, came and presented his comic-magician-juggler-unicyclist act at our Community Centre. This show, sponsored by the Port McNicoll Public Library, was very well attended - and very much enjoyed.

Bonar Presbyterian Church will be holding a Garage Sale on Saturday, July 5th, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30. Come and make an offer - everything must go!

The Port McNicoll Public Library will again be accepting news items for the Midland Times. Please either telephone (534-3511) or drop off during Library hours.

Midland to host Rose Show

Midland will host the 1986 Annual Huronia Rose Society Rose Show on Saturday July 12th at Mountainview Mall, Midland; on your left on highway 93 as you approach the turn for downtown Midland.

This year the committee have added an extra special attraction in arranging with eleven Midland gardeners to make their gardens available for viewing for that day. Maps and directions will be available at the Show.

All Rose lovers are invited to participate.

Membership is only $5.00 per person or $7.50 per family per household. Memberships will be available at the Show. There will be no charge to view the Show.

For further information contact the Convenors.

Helen Redman, Director - 526-7162; Peter Balcom, Director - 526-4016; Steven Lumb, President - 726-0580; Grace Marcellus, Publicity - 322-2158.

Angela Schmidt-Foster

A road was named after Angela Schmidt-Foster at last weeks meeting of the Midland Rotary Club. The road, located in Tiny Township was named in her honour for her accomplishments on world class skiing.

Share the 17th Century feeling at Shondecti

Shondecti, the prime summer weekend at Midland's Sainte-Marie among the Hurons, returns July 12 and 13 and the '86 edition promises drama and challenge for everyone.

An all-new screen presentation which replaces the orientation film in use for more than a decade, will be unveiled for Shondecti visitors. Produced by Toronto's Holman Productions, the dynamic presentation tells the story of Sainte-Marie from four perspectives - that of a Huron traditionalist, a Huron Christian, a French Jesuit and a French donne, (lay helper).

Inspired by this provocative approach, Sainte-Marie Interpretive and Education Officer, Sharon Armstrong has devised a lively challenge for Shondecti visitors. Says Sharon, "We want everyone to be part of what happens within the palisade; we want to make the transition from the perspective of the new production to the reality of the site." Folks who participate in Sharon's Perspectives Challenge will see their Ontario heritage in an entirely new focus. As they leave the site, they will be presented with individual certificates attesting to their personal involvement in the Sainte-Marie story.

Colored badges will identify Shondecti Perspectives Challenge participants as Jesuits, lay workers, Huron Christians or Traditional Christians. During the new audio/visual presentation, they'll meet a Jesuit who came to the New World seeking souls; a donne whose function was to support the Jesuits and to build them a secure community in the wilderness; a traditional Huron who views the newcomers with curiosity and understandable suspicion, and a Huron who has accepted the Jesuit teaching.

On site, the dramatic experience is complemented by the opportunity to meet the players in the drama. John Steckly, a writer and noted Huron linguist, plays the Jesuit Superior, Fr. Paul Ragneneau on screen, and he will be wearing the robes of a priest Shondecti weekend. Neil Monague and Anne-Marie McCue are native interpreters at Sainte-Marie. Anne-Marie's dramatic role is that of a traditional Huron woman who sees only death and destruction resulting from European incursion into her land. Neil Monague plays the Christian Ouendat who sees the future of his people resting in co-operation with the newcomers. Sainte-Marie staff supervisor, Tim Braund, is the on-screen donne, and he will be on site Shondecti weekend.

During Shondecti, costumed historical interpreters will assume first-person identity, assuring visitors of total immersion in the 17th century. Uniformed historical interpreters wearing 20th century garb will assist in the transition from present time into the historic past.

Shondecti '86 will be further enriched with the music and dance of the 17th century. The Nimkee Young Ojibway Dancers from Parry Island and Huronia will be revealed in Parry Soind District will perform July 12, at 11:30 am and 1:30 pm. On Sunday, French music and dance of the 17th century will be presented by Pro Amore Musicae, at 11:30 am; 1:30 pm and 3:30 pm. Vivid impressions of Ouendat and Algonkian life in 17th century Huronia will be revealed in a collection of paintings by Lewis Parker and Gerald Lazare. Shondecti '86 offers music, drama, visual excitement and the opportunity for personal involvement. Living history has never been so exciting. Why not be part of it? Sainte-Marie among the Hurons is located just east of Midland on Highway 12, directly across from Martyrs' Shrine. Shondecti '86 runs Saturday July 12 and Sunday July 13, between 10:00 am and 6:00 pm with the last admission at 5:15 pm.

HURONIA SENIOR CONSUMERS ASSOCIATION

ARE YOU 60 OR OVER?
If so the Huronia Senior Consumer membership card can entitle you to

- A FULL RANGE OF GOODS AND SERVICES
- DISCOUNTS UP TO 10% ON ANY SHOPPING DAY.

For more information please call 526-2121

Students are good at doing home work ... this summer

If you'd like to have someone cut your grass, or paint the house, or do any other work around the house, consider hiring a student. Students are eager to get a job this summer. Any job you can give them. So hire a student.

Students... they work.
Call the Canada Employment Centre for Students nearest you. They'll send the right student for the job.

June 22 - 28
is Hire a Student Week
526-3746

Employment and Immigration Canada / Emploi et Immigration Canada / Canada

The Pocket Miracle
SATURDAY, JUNE 28
Mountainview Mall
Hwy. 93
Midland

Plenty of Free Parking!