Car accident sends child to hospital

A motor vehicle accident last Friday has sent two year-old Lia McKay to Toronto Hospital for Sick Children.

The accident was caused as a result of driver, 17 year-old Piots Zychla, failing to stop at a stop sign on County Road 6 and Tiny Concession 11 last Friday.

Lia was thrown from the car, taken to Huronia District Hospital and then transported by air ambulance to Toronto Hospital for Sick Children. The car was driven by father Kenneth McKay and had passenger Sophie (mother) in the automobile as well.

Zychla, Sophie and Kenneth McKay were taken to HDH and later released.

Zychla has been charged under the Highway Traffic Act.

Construction site death

A construction site accident in Honey Harbour has led to the death of 55 year-old Warner Matt, Saturday, an employee of G.J. Construction Company.

The death resulted after Matt fell from a second floor ledge at a construction site on Sunrise Road in Honey Harbour.

Matt was taken to Huronia District Hospital and later transferred to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto. Matt suffered severe head and chest injuries and died at approximately 11:30 last Wednesday. An inquest into the accident is to follow.

Youth apprehended

An area youth has been apprehended after last Saturday's break-in of the Mikes Milk Variety Store in Port McNicoll. The Midland OPP recovered $164 worth of cigarettes from the youth, whose name could not be released under the Young offenders Act.

The youth was turned in by a Port resident whose name has been kept confidential.

Mikes Milk in Port McNicoll has been the victim of two other break and enters over the past few months and a number of other thefts over the past two years.
