

Thanks for the balloon

Joshua Pauze, 16 months, was one of a number of satisfied Midland Sidewalk Sale visitors who stopped at the North Simcoe Waste Management Association recycling program table. The message on the balloon is, We Recycle.

Preaching to the converted

Anne Desroches, manager of this area's recycling program, hands a button across Lionel Dion to Claude Buck, the first chairman of the recycling committee.

Dion is the chairman of the North Simcoe Waste Management Association. The recycling table was set up during the Midland Sidewalk Sale.

New look at arena

The folks at the Midland Centennial Arena are enjoying the benefits of a newly completed landscape design in front of the Arena. The landscaping, designed by Brian MacKell, and constructed by Native Woods Landscaping of Midland, will add safety and beauty to the exterior of the building. The cost of the shrubbery that highlights the landscaping was made possible by donations from the Midland Minor Hockey Association, Midland Figure Skating Club, the Oldtimers League and Under 45 League. Here, Parks and Arena Superintendent Jim McLearan and Steve Woods of Native Woods Landscaping inspect one of the trees that accompany the fresh new look of the Arena exterior.
