

Obituary

William Manson

Nicholls Funeral Home was the scene of the funeral of the late William John Manson, of Fifth Street, Midland, on June 23, 1986.

Mr. Manson, age 84, died in Georgian Manor, Penetanguishene, after more than five years' illness.

William Manson, the son of John A. Manson and Isabella Douglas, was born in Huron County, in Zurich. He was a cost accountant in London and Toronto and worked for 15 years for the Gidley Boat Company, and 35 years as office manager of the Copeland Milling Company of Elmvale. He retired approximately 16 years ago.

He was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church, Midland. He was a Past Master of the Masonic Lodge, Penetanguishene.

Wives Mae Whalen of Penetang and Isabella Robertson of Toronto, and son Bruce, predeceased him.

Stepdaughters June (Mrs. Charles Walton) of Midland and Alice (Mrs.

Gordon Watson) of Barrie, and brothers Gordon of Dundas and Donald of Orillia, survive him.

Rev. J.L. Self and Dr. Paul Brown officiated at the funeral service, held June 26. Interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Midland.

Robert Manson of Zurich, Murray Manson of Komoka, Ont., Doug Manson of Toronto, Dave Robertson of Leaside, Richard Larmand of Midland, and Michael Lalonde of Midland, were his pallbearers.

Adele Bush

Mrs. Bush was born at Penetanguishene and lived most of her life in the Honey Harbour area.

Her funeral service was held in St. James-on-the-lines Anglican Church, Penetanguishene, on July 2, with Rev. Joan Waters officiating. Interment in St. James-on-the-lines Cemetery, Penetanguishene.

Craig Peters, Bruce and Steve Klamer, Jim Mason, Todd Miller and Randy Bush, all grandsons, were her pallbearers.

Her husband George Bush of Honey Harbour, sons Wilfred and Michael

of Midland, mother Annie DuRieu of the Villa Community Care Centre, Midland, sister Kathleen Dyson of Penetanguishene, brother Jim Hunter of California, 23 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, survive her.

Janitor gets 7% increase

Along with raises full-time Town employees in Penetanguishene, part-time janitor Willard Hamelin has received a seven percent pay increase.

At last Monday night's session of Town council, Penetang officials gave their seal of approval to increasing the salary of the janitor by the seven percent rather than giving a lump sum increase as done in other years.

It will now cost the Town $11,437 to keep the Municipal building, Fire Station and Police Station maintained by the janitor.

Not for everyone

Tracey Vent is an instructor with the Georgian Bay Rowing Society. This fibreglass racing scull was one of two on display during the Midland Sidewalk Sale.

The GB Rowing Society has recreational craft, too. "You can't just hop into one of these and go," Vent said of the racing scull.
