Notice of Open House

The Midland Waterfront Development Committee will be conducting an Open House on

Wednesday,
September 17th, 1986

6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Council Chambers,
Municipal Building
575 Dominion Ave.,
Midland, Ontario

The Committee is soliciting written and/or verbal submissions from the landowners within the Midland Waterfront Development Study Area, special interest groups in the municipality and from the citizens in the Town of Midland with respect to the future development and land uses for all of the waterfront properties fronting onto Midland Bay and the Tiffin Basin. The comments and ideas will then be reviewed by the Committee when formulating preliminary land use and concept plans and in the preparation of a draft development document.

All those interested in the future of the Midland Waterfront are encouraged to make written submissions and/or attend the Open House to discuss their ideas with the Committee members.

For more information please contact Bryan MacKell, Planning Director and Secretary to the Midland Waterfront Development Committee during regular business hours at 575 Dominion Ave., Midland, Ontario, L4R 1R2, Telephone No. (705) 526-4275.

I would like to thank the members of the Midland Police Dept., the Ontario Provincial Police, Midland Detachment, and all my friends who contributed to my gift on the occasion of my early retirement, due to ill health. It is impossible to thank each individually. Thank you all! Bob, Harold, Chippy, Bill and many others for your cards and letters. Special thanks to John Nelson and Les. Scott for driving out to Alberta to attend my retirement party and helping make it a memorable occasion.
