Someone Who Cares

is as close as your telephone

Who calls? All kinds of people from all walks of life, when they are:

Lonely and need to know that someone really cares

Facing a crisis and in need of support and guidance

Depressed and need to talk with a fellow human who can help

Who answers?

TELECARE volunteers have each received a minimum of 50 hours of intensive training and are competent to discuss your concerns whatever they may be.

All TELECARE workers have vowed to hold all conversations in strictest confidence. In fact, you are welcome to remain completely anonymous when you call TELECARE.

TELECARE volunteers have at their fingertips the names and numbers of all community agencies and organizations that can provide the kind of additional help you may be looking for.
