

LIFT program unveiled

LIFT means Life skills and Independence for Teens. Present last Friday at 306 Midland Avenue were, from left, Don Cumming, area program manager of Kinark, LIFT program co-ordinator Linda Jeffery, and Children's Aid Society branch service director Dan Downey.

OPP report no impaired drivers

For the first time this year, the Midland Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police report a week without laying an impaired driving charge. Police were encouraged by the lack of impaired driving charges from Oct. 14 to 20.

During the same week, according to police reports, they investigated 10 motor vehicle accidents, four involving personal injury, and four property damage.

Also that week, the Midland detachment investigated 87 general occurrences. Twelve of these resulted in investigations, five being thefts, three break and enters, two wilful damage and two non-sufficient funds cheques.

The police laid five charges. Two assaults, one under the Liquor Licence Act, one shoplifting and one other under the Criminal Code.
