Obituary

Elsie P. Rutherford

Elsie P. Rutherford, a resident of 491 Midland Avenue, Midland, for approximately 50 years, has died at age 87. She died on Oct. 3, 1986, after four months' illness, in Huronia District Hospital.

Elsie Rutherford was a charter member of the Midland Ladies Progressive Conservative Association. She was the first white child born in the little Mission of Michipicoten, four miles south of Wawa, Ont.

Her father, David F. May, was a prospector, and a native of Virginia. Her mother, Jennie Livingston, was born in St. Catharines, Ont.

Elsie May was a teenager when her family moved to Toronto. There she met and married the late Jack Rutherford.

Jack Rutherford was a prominent sports figure in Midland for many years. He died in June, 1974.

Elsie Rutherford enjoyed gardening, sewing, knitting and travelling. She also enjoyed her grandchildren and great grandchildren, by whom she will be sorely missed.

Elsie Rutherford, as a child, attended public school and St. Mary's Convent, in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

She married John William Rutherford in Toronto on Dec. 5, 1917.

Daughters June Riley and Ruth (Mrs. Willard McElrea), both of Midland, and Joyce of Beverley Hills, Calif., and brother Chaunce May of Midland and sister Marion Crane of Richmond Hill, as well as four grandchildren and 10

great grandchildren, survive her.

Her husband, her sister Bessie HOFFIE, and grandchildren Reade Riley, Lori McElrea, and Brent Riley predeceased her.

Rev. Al Farthing officiated at the funeral service held Oct. 6 in Nicholls Funeral Home. Interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Midland.
