

Lemme at 'im

Spectators at the Penetanguishene Arena got a lot more than they paid for on Friday evening during the Penetanguishene Junior C Kings game against the Gravenhurst Indians. Good sportsman like conduct was not a highlight of the game, as the two sides fought to a 180-180 draw, in penalty minutes, that is. Although our hometown boys spent a good portion of the game in the penalty box they were able to capture their best win of the season. The Indians lost at the hands of the Kings by a score of 11-1. This was only one of a few brawls that broke out between the two sides on Friday evening.

Petras defeat Parry Sound

by Gayle Hamelin

The Petras travelled to Parry Sound on Sunday to take on the much improved Trilites, and came away with a 3 - 2 win.

Jane Derry opened the scoring for the Petras on a pass from Ruby (Rebound) Degenaar. Parry Sound captain Pam Wedd evened the score when she slapped home her own rebound past Gayle Hamelin with 12 seconds left in the first period.

After solving equipment problems which prevented her from starting the game, Shawna Sickinger took over in the second and held

Parry Sound scoreless in the second period.

Petra's captain Mo McKinnon put the lead back in Penetang's hands, unassisted at 8:45.

Karen Graham fed a beautiful pass to Sandv

McDonald for a 3 - 1 Petra lead, but Pam Wedd slipped a low wrist shot past

Sickinger for a 3 - 2 final.

The next game for the

Petras is Sunday, November 23 in Gravenhurst, 6:30 p.m.
