Let's get started

Midland Stoneleigh Centennials begin to move the puck out of their own end as a teammate ties up the lone enemy pursuer during Friday night's Jr. C contest at Centennial Arena with Stayner Siskins. Stayner came to play and took home a 5 - 2 victory and first place.

Petras sting Angels

by Gayle Hamelin

The Petras hosted Gravenhurst Ault's Angels Friday night in North Eastern Ontario Women's Hockey Association action.

Lee Ann Orr of the Angels again put in a fine performance in the net, allowing only one goal in the first period by Petra Shawna Grouette.

Shawna Sickinger held Gravenhurst at bay for most of the game in the Petra net making many fine saves.

The 1-0 score for the Petras held up until the third period when Janice Holmes scored two goals to put the home team up by three, but with just 34 seconds left in the game, Gravenhurst captain Tammi Craig made a beautiful pass from the corner to Cathy McCausland in front of the net, and she put it by Sickinger to spoil the shutout.

Assist in the game for the Petras went to Jane Derry with two, Mo McKinnon, Ruby Degenaar and Kim Widde.

The next game for the Petras is on Thursday December 11, when they again meet the Angels in Gravenhurst at 7:00 p.m.

Castex wins area

Monsignor Castex Boys Volleyball team had good reason to be happy on Wednesday, November 26 as they managed to win their fourth consecutive Area 3 Championship at MSS.

The boys went 10-1 for the day. Led by the hitting of Chris Irvine, Dean Scott, Jason Levesque, and Jeff Hodgins, the boys displayed a well disciplined approach to the game.

Setters Stephen Bernard and Adam Bourgeois stabilized the attack and controlled play at the net. Bench strength proved very important as the entire team played until the final when crosstown rivals Bayview and Monsignor met in the final once again.

In an exciting final, Castex won the first game, but let up in the second to lose a squeaker, 13-15.

In the third game, Bayview jumped out to a 9-3 lead but the momentum changed and Monsignor came on to win 15-12.

Both Bayview and Castex now qualify for the County finals hosted this year by Area 3, at MSS, PSS, and St. T's on Sat. December 13.
