The Sunday Morning Sinners League, better known as the Penetang Recreational Hockey League, entertained their fans with some excellent hockey Sunday morning. Here the goaltender moves to attempt a save on a close in shot. The PRHL is one of the few leagues in the area that feature bone crushing body contact.

Cents triumphant

Midland Stoneleigh Centennials scored seven times in the first period enroute to a 12 - 6 thumping of the Gravenhurst Indians Friday night at Centennial Arena in Georgian Bay Junior C Hockey League action.

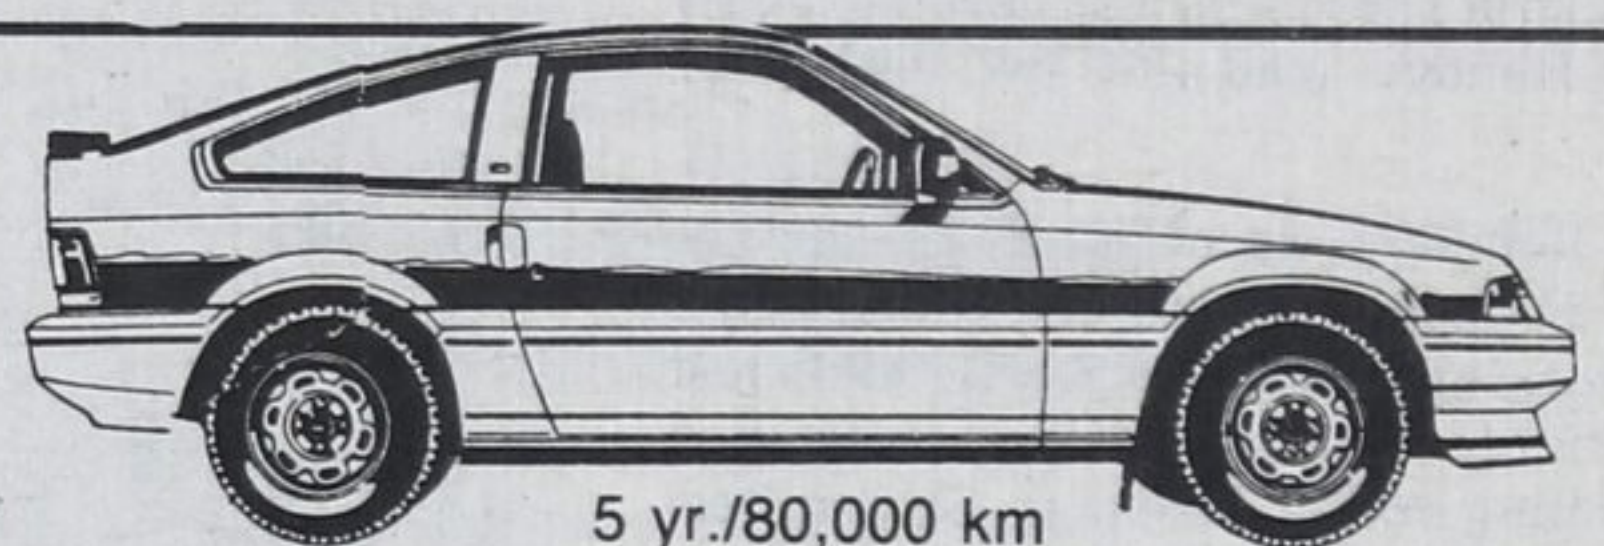

Brent Insley opened the floodgates at 2:45 of the opening period assisted by Tom Hook and Dan Clement. At 5:06 Daryl Belcourt finished off a power play goal with John Smith and Rob Fortin. Then, in a span of three minutes and 24 seconds, beginning at 6:40, Midland sharp shooters popped in four more. Chris Edwards tallied from Jeff Douglas, Insley assisted by Belcourt and Smith, Marchand helped out by Meridis and Bressette, and Meridis from Marchand for a 6 - 0 Midland lead by the halfway point of the opening stanza.

Gravenhurst appeared on the board 40 seconds later as Grant Kirbyson found the mark. Jeff Douglas countered at 16:39 for the Cents assisted by Meridis and Fortin to end the first period barrage.

Renne Bakema notched the visitors' second tally at 2:54 of the second period, while Shane Gauthier scored at 5:57 on the power play. Brent Insley replied for Stoneleigh with a shorthanded marker at 7:35 from Belcourt to complete his hat trick, and then Bressette connected from Marchand and Peter Lalonde at 10:38. Shane Gauthier scored his second at 14:22 and Bill Beauchamp rounded out the scoring for Gravenhurst in the middle frame at 19:58 to make the score 9 - 5.

Meridis, Douglas, and Hook notched third period singletons before Bakema closed out the scoring in the contest at 19:46 of the third period for a Midland Centennial 12 - 6 final. Belcourt with two, Fortin, John Smith, Insley, and Marchand picked up the third period assists.
