Indusmin bantams

The Bantams travelled to Owen Sound Saturday afternoon, only to find the game had been mysteriously cancelled five weeks ago. Hoping to get back in action, Indusmin went to Collingwood and played their scheduled game Sunday afternoon.

Collingwood opened the scoring, as John Smith took advantage of poor defensive work and his high shot beat Jason Leclair in the Midland net. With 1:08 remaining, Bill Mitchell took a pass from Jim McLaren, moved in and his low slapshot found the target, Gary Moore picking up the other assist.

The second saw Midland score five times. Trevor Irvine, Chris Jones, Bill Mitchell, Greg Lalonde, and George Gunther did the damage for Indusmin.

Midland added six more in the third to win going away 12 - 1. Greg Lalonde (2) completing his hat trick, Ted French (2), Jones, and Irvine scored, while Mitchell and McLaren each received four assists, Gunther 2, Jamie Peden, Jones, Chris Walser, Bryan Cadeau, Shawn Lalonde, and Greg Lalonde one each.

Next competition will be Wednesday, with Owen Sound visiting at Midland, 8:30 p.m., (re-scheduled from Tuesday).
