

Up the ice

Defenseman Kevin Hubbard hustles back as Gravenhurst Indians start the play up the ice in Georgian Bay Junior C Hockey action at Centennial Arena Friday night. Midland

Stoneleigh Centennials easily won the contest with a 12 - 6 decision.

Bowling execs ready for provincial finals

by Dennis Brabant

The Midland-Penetang five Pin Assoc'n held its League Executive Tournament last weekend at Bayshore Lanes. Presidents, Secretaries and Treasurers competed in the three game pins-over average tournament for the right to represent our association at the provincial finals on January 31 at London, Ontario.

The results were as follows:

Presidents

Pauline Brabant, 145, Tues. 7-ups; Dean Chapman, 123, Sunday mixed; J.P. Desroches, 87, Penetang Industrial, Anne Boucher, 80, St. Annes Ladies.

Secretaries

Shirley Sharp, 65, St Margarets; Harvey Stevens, 63, Midland Industrial; Eileen McTague, 60, Sunday mixed, Pat Collins, 32, St. Annes mixed.

Treasurers

Peter Lacroix, 42, Penetang Industrial; Mary Lefave, 21, Georgian Bay mixed; Rodney Todd, 10, Midland Industrial; Joe Geroux, 4, Tues. 7-ups.

The first three runners-up won prizes and a lunch was served after the tournament for all the competitors. The three winners will be competing for $3000., in merchandise prizes and trips for two to Florida as well as the right to represent Ontario at the Canadian Championships.

Ray Staunton representing Midland, and Maurice Lacroix representing Penetang, did extremely well in the CBC Ontario Championships in Toronto on the weekend. Ray started out with a five game score of 1,276 at O'Connor Bowl, while Maurice roller 1,297, which was good enough to put both bowlers in the top 12 for the first half.

The bowlers then drove to Thorncliff Bowlerama for the second five games of the competition.

Ray started out big with 308 and 304 back to back but then rolled games of 212,167 and 186 which dropped him back to 30th place with a total of 2,453.

Maurice was holding down 19th spot after eight games until he bowled 191 in the ninth game to move him out of contention in the extremely tough competition ending up with 2,420 and in 33rd position.

The top 24 bowlers made the cut at 2,520 and went on to roll five more games. Congratulations go out to Maurice and Ray for such a good effort.

Peewees drop pair

Midland Bell Canada Peewees suffered a pair of losses on the weekend that just as easily could have been a pair of victories.

Elmvale Brown's Valu Mart skated to a 6 - 1 win Friday night over Bell Canada. Midland missed many scoring chances, most on the power play, as Elmvale was hit for 22 minutes in penalties to Midland's eight. David Ferris accounted for Midland's goal with Sean Traynor and Sean Rourke assisting.

Sunday afternoon, Midland Bell Canada Peewees hosted Stayner and were nipped 4 - 3 at the hands of their guests.

Stayner notched a pair in the first before Trevor Quesnelle dented the twine from Adam Bourgeois and then David Ferris connected with the assists going to Keith Duval and Dennis Maheu to knot the score at 2 - 2.

Stayner regained the lead early in the third, but Adam Bourgeois drew Midland even once again with help from Ferris. With only two seconds showing on the clock in the third period, Pat Armstrong, Elmvale captain, beat Dean Scott in the Bell Canada net for the 4 - 3 victory.

Times regain power

Midland Times got back on the winning track last Saturday in Midland Minor Hockey Peewee House League action by virtue of a 5-3 victory over Midland Police.

The victory was a team effort with only Jim Colman absent due to an injury.

Police jumped out to a 1-0 lead at the 11:10 mark of the first period with a tally off the stick of James Kranz. Sean Lavin gave Midland Times a 1-1 tie at 8:37 with Tyler Gravel assisting.

The Times exploded for three consecutive tallies in the second as Gravel connected at 9:32 from Terry Waltenbury before Waltenbury connected 80 seconds later from Gravel. Mike Besley completed their second period scoring at 5:04 with an unassisted marker.
