

Scottish jig

Avenue closing approved for sale

If any problems arise during the July, 1987, Midland Sidewalk Sale, lack of preparation won't be the cause.

Business Improvement Area board representatives Ray McLarney and John Gianetto met last Thursday to discuss his dream is to make the Sidewalk Sale a "media event," similar to the popular Penetanguishene Winterama of 30 years ago.

At the start of last summer's Sidewalk Sale, a big ride positioned in the intersection of King Street

Musical interlude

Members of the Midland Legion's Pipe and Drum Band gave the audience more than their money's worth on Saturday evening during the Robbie Burns dinner. The 200 guests celebrated the anniversary of Burns' birthday (Jan. 21, 1739) with highland dancing, and Scottish fare (haggis) and a performance by the pipe and drum band.
