Saints in Coldwater tourney

This past weekend the Midland Oldtimers Saints participated in the 8th Annual Coldwater Creeks Oldtimers Hockey tournament. Fresh from the resounding defeat at the hands of the NHL Oldtimers during Midland's 2nd Annual Winter Winterfest, the Saints were expected to successfully defend, for the third year in a row, the "C" Division Championship Trophy. Such was not the case.

In a tournament where teams seek their own level, as opposed to being seeded in a specific division, the Saints met the Gravenhurst Olde Steamers in the first game on Friday night. With Nelson Robillard in nets for the Saints, the Olde Steamers jumped into an early lead in the first period only to be quickly tied by a goal from the Saints Terry Knight assisted by Len Miller and Earl Cousineau.

Later in a wild goal mouth scramble, Terry Knight scored his second and what proved to be the winning goal with an assist being credited to Len Miller. The insurance goal was provided during a goal crease collision with the puck being tipped into the net by Fred Flood with assists being given to Bill Knibbs and Bryan MacKell. The final cushion goal was scored from a cannonading wrist shot by Earl Cousineau, assisted by Len Miller. The Saints remained in the "A" Division and Len Linka won the team hockey stick draw.

In the second game on Saturday, the Saints played their neighbouring rivals, the Penetang Memories Lounge Oldtimers. The Saints, with their ranks being depleted due to shift work, Warren Duckworth and Larry "Motor City" Smith, Florida holidayers Rick Leaney and John Webber and injuries Ross Heacock (NHL Oldtimers game), went to the farm team, the Midland "Over 30" league, and drafted Richard "Doc" Thomas to augment their roster.

Burke "Mohammed" Thompson also returned to the lineup after missing Friday night's game. In a close checking game, Memories Lounge opened the scoring midway through the first period by slipping the puck past Mike Fleurie. In the dying moments of the period, "Doc" Thomas managed to stab the puck into the net with an assist being given to Terry Knight.

The second period was a very close checking affair with each team looking for the ideal opportunity to score which was capitalized upon by Earl Cousineau's low blast from the centre slot with assists being earned by Bob Larmand and Bill Knibbs.

In the final minute of the game, the Saints then staved off the extra man attack to secure the win and to still remain in the "A" Division.

Oom pah pah a huge success

The 11th Annual Courtesy Chrysler Oom Pah Pah Curling Bonspiel took place Saturday at the Midland Curling Club with 20 rinks entered.

Four teams were three game winners with the Preston foursome of Burlington emerging as the overall winners. Other winners were Lilliman of Simcoe and Levely of Brantford. Midland's Leighton Smith was the only local three-game winner. Leighton's crew consisted of Shirley Widde, Cheryl and Ed Predki of Ajax and Dick and Connie Dickson from Orillia.

Bonspiel sponsor, Des Carpenter of Courtesy Chrysler, has confirmed next year's spiel for February 12.

Novices split tournament

In Georgian Bay Minor Hockey Novice division, Midland Gervan and Associates were nipped 2-1 by Collingwood on the weekend. Pat Brooks opened the scoring for Midland at 6:31 of the first period, but the visitors returned the favor with less than a minute to go in the frame.

Collingwood fired the game winner a minute and a half into the final period after skating through a scoreless middle stanza.

Sunday afternoon, Gervan and Associates visited Creemore and left with a 3-1 win.

Joe Rooney connected late in the first period for Midland to knot the contest at 1-1. Mark Charlebois banged home the eventual game winner at 8:26 of the second with Kevin Wood assisting, and then Pat Brooks garnered the insurance marker at 1:21 of the final period with help from Rooney and Adam McCarty.

Midland will start their OMHA playoffs this coming weekend with Collingwood. Game one is slated for Centennial Arena Sunday at 5:15 p.m.
