Oldtimers take division

The Georgian Bay (Elmvale) Oldtimers captured the A division of the Fifth Annual Midland Oldtimers Hockey Tournament at Centennial Arena on the weekend.

Elmvale defeated Sundridge 5-0 in the Championship contest. Elmvale got goals from Bob Hamill and Don Robinson counted in the first period for Elmvale, while Gerry McBride, Ray Cyr, and Don Cosburn connected in the second frame.

In their first contest, Georgian Bay whitewashed Barrie No Names 7-0. Larry Simpson recorded a hat trick, while Den Turner, Don Cosburn, Bob Hamill, and Wayne Hickling completed the scoring.

In their second game, Den Turner turned on the red light three times to pace a 6-1 victory over Collingwood. Other goal scorers for Elmvale were Corby Adams, Bob Hamill, and Ray Cyr.

In their semi final game, Elmvale slipped past Oakville 5-2. Adams tallied twice, with singles coming off the sticks of Larry Simpson, Wayne Hickling and Don Robinson.

Aurora Church Dodgers won the B Division with a 7-4 win over Scarborough Relics. Enroute to their championship win, Aurora snuck past Collingwood 3-1, but lost 6-2 to Barrie No Names. The Church Dodgers rebounded in their semi final game to defeat St. Benedicts 8-1.

Collingwood Over 45's were the C Division Champs by dropping Simcoe County Selects 7-1. After falling to Aurora in a close contest 3-1, they dropped a 6-1 decision to Georgian Bay Oldtimers. In their semi final game, they doubled the count on Orillia Queen's Pizzeria 4-2.

In the D Division final, Barrie No Names were taken to an overtime shootout to emerge victorious over Thornhill Over 50's 2-1.

The No Names were blanked in their first match 7-0 at the hands of Elmvale, then turned around and dumped Aurora 6-2. In their semi final matchup, Barrie No Names disposed of Asses Aces by a 5-1 count.

Soupe du jour

The soup of the day is pea and last Saturday was the day of the pea. The Penetang Peasouper Bonspiel is the harbinger of spring for local curlers and the chance to mingle with other curlers from all around the province. Of course the main topic of conversation was the chances of Russ Howard's rink in the Worlds Curling Championships this week in Vancouver. Two of our culinary curlers, Don Read and Dave Yeoman, assumed the responsibility of adding the essential ingredient to the Peasouper, they make the soup. They rigged up a ten foot iron tripod in the lounge, from which a gallon iron kettle was suspended over an open flame. If you ever have to provide lunch for 96 hungary curlers, Don passed on the recipe.

Take fourteen kilos of peas, two kilos of onions, two kilos of ham and three kilos of salt pork. Soak the peas for twenty-four hours, rinse and simmer in water. Add salt pork, onions and ham to water and boil till fat melts. Add peas, as peas split, add more water as required, season to taste. Recruit a Hydro linesman with a strong back and a large paddle to stir the mess, and the soup she is ready!

On the ice, the curlers bent to the task of eclipsing the three game score of 53 1/2 set the previous week by the Rod Reynolds rink of Midland. At the end of the day, the long arm of the law was the truest. The Metro Toronto Police rink of Brian Fielding, skip, Bob McDonald, vice, Fred Willison, second and Bill Goodchild, lead, beat the Bill Howard rink in the third game for the day's high score of 53 points. It came down to the last rock of the last end. When Bill Howard took out the Fielding's shot rock, it ensured that the Peasouper trophy would remain in the area. Just as well, the old trophy is showing signs of age. I am not sure that it would have survived the journey down to T.O. It would not have been happy down there anyway having to listen to all that Wrench worship. The Metro Police rink curls out of Avonlea. Rod Reynolds was an interested viewer behind the glass.

Somebody was holding the broom for him at Midland at the 44 year old 30,000 Island Bonspiel. Rod breathed a sigh of relief when he realized that he had won the trophy by half a point. He said, "It is hard luck for the Toronto rink but somebody always wins the Peasouper by a half or a quarter point."

Rod remarked at his presentation speech that he was happy to win the Peasouper at his twelfth attempt. Leighton Smith was the vice, Jack Charlebois, second, and Keith Craig lead on Rod's winning team. The Brian Brooks rink of Martin Quigley, vice, Bob Bald, second, and Keith Press, lead, were runners up with a 51 point total for the three games.
