GBMH crowns new champion

by Dan Cousineau

Sunday, March 29 was the night that saw the championship reins of the Georgian Bay Men's Hockey League change hands.

After Jug City Jets had taken a 1-0 lead in games by virtue of a first game 7-4 victory, it was all Village Square IDA.

Game two saw Village Square IDA Pharmacy squeak out a 3-2 victory as Rick Gordon scored the winner early in the third period. Dan Trendall and Andy Zurawski were the other goal scorers for IDA as Bill McIntosh and Steve Kennedy replied for Jug City.

Game three, again was close, as two third period goals gave Village Square a 4-2 victory and a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five final. Martial Marion and Dan Trendall had goals in the third to go along with singles by Paul Hahn and Rick Gordon. Jug City replied with markers by Steve Kennedy and Jerry Lethbridge.

Game four of the series was played Sunday, March 29, with Jug City facing elimination from their year-long reign as champions. IDA Pharmacy drew first blood as Rick Gordon scored in the first period to give the IDA club a 1-0 lead. Jug City took the lead in the second on goals by Bill McIntosh and John O'Hara. IDA replied with a trio of goals to take the lead for good as Pierre Belanger, Martial Marion and Ron Lethbridge all scored before the second period had ended. They increased their lead to 5-2 half way through the third as Martial Marion had his second of the game, then Dave Miller salted it away with a goal to make it 6-2. Jug City did however, score the last goal of the season as Steve Kennedy notched one to make the final score, Village Square IDA Pharmacy 6, Jug City Jets 3. Congratulations to Village Square IDA Pharmacy, the 1986-87 Georgian Bay Men's Hockey League Champions.

At this time I would like to thank the many sponsors who helped out the teams in the league this year, and to the hard working executive of Ed Cramm, Jaime Robitaille and Bill Puddicombe. Rob Bianco, who handled the timekeeping duties and Billian's Valu-Mart in Midland, who provided MVP awards to players each week also deserve big thanks. And to the local newspapers who provided space for these articles throughout the season.

Once again, congratulations to the new champions, Village Square IDA Pharmacy.
